Gail - Our Sister, Our Jewel

Though our hearts ache with her absence, we celebrate her departure from this earthly tabernacle. She has left us with precious memories to cherish, lessons to carry forward, and a model of love to emulate. She found joy in being a blessing to those around her, for her generosity and kindness demonstrated that she genuinely had a heart for helping others. Despite the difficult circumstances she faced, it served as a reminder to us to always have faith in the Lord Jesus and to never give up hope.

"Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD." ~ Psalm 31:24

Your Sisters,

Georgia, Ruth, Henrine, Berlinda, Marilyn, Deborah, Mary, and Vanessa

Tee Gail, our second mom! You did something and decided (this time) not to call or text me to let me in on it. Your impact on my life all my life represented a love that was more than genuine. It was real. Nobody knew our relationship but us.

Our talks were priceless. You had your opinions and voiced them, but you always applauded my success. The random text messages to check on me, I will miss and I never took any of it for granted. But you knew that and I'm glad I know between me and you that you were proud of me because you told me so and I always tried to give back what I could to show you while you were here even though most times you wanted nothing but a hug and just to hang out and talk. I am devastated, T Gail! God knows best but I wish I would have gotten the memo on this one to try and soften the blow. I love you beyond this life and I will see you later. Thanks for always looking out for me and "OUR 4". Forever ever!!!

Your Elle Gee (Teki); Whitney, Dre (your fave); Brandi; and Sookie

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Gail Denise Green

Born on January 5, 1958, in Jackson, Ms. Gail Denise Green was the daughter of the late Lucas Taylor and Minnie Green. Her four brothers, Willie James Jones, Sr., Robert Earl Jones, Cleophas Green, and Ealus "Micky" Green, also preceded her in death.

She was raised in Jackson where she proudly graduated from Callaway High School in 1976. To further her education, she earned an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Paralegal/Legal Assistant from Alaska Junior College. She also obtained a deputy city clerk certification from the Mississippi Municipal Clerks Association.

Gail had been employed by the City of Jackson in the Office of the City Clerk for more than twenty-two years. Earlier in her career, she worked as a technician in the Division of Motor Vehicles for the State of Alaska.

Gail loved her friends and family, but above all, she worked hard to ensure that her beloved great nieces and nephews, Whitney Shaquillia Green; Dondre Canal Green; Brandalyn Kellisha Lakale Green; and Treydon Arsael Green had all they required for success in life. She loved shopping for a variety of plants because she was an avid gardener. But while she immersed herself in her daily morning meditation and prayer, her greatest passion was reading the Word of God.

Early in life she received Christ and attended Cade Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Jackson, MS. While residing in Alaska as a member of Chapel Fairbanks Church, Gail received the baptism of the Holy Ghost and served there faithfully. After returning to Jackson, MS she joined New Zion Healing Temple where she was baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. As a member of New Zion Healing Temple, she served diligently as an administrative assistant at the Apostolic Connection Training Service (ACTS) School of Ministry; and worked with the baptism committee, and with the Missionary Department. Additionally, Gail served in the ministry by dedicating her time and talents to assisting the Pastor with various book writings.

She leaves to cherish those who loved her dearly; eight sisters, Georgia Green of Plano, TX; Eddie Ruth Jones of Redding, CA; Hentrine (Rosevelt) Gray of Fairbanks, AK; Berlinda Johnson; Marilyn (Perry) Jones; Deborah Jones; Mary Green; and Vanessa (Larry) Henderson all of Jackson, MS; a very special sister-in-law Katrina Green of Madison, MS; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

I'M FREE

Do not grieve for me
for now I am free,
I am following the path
God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I have found that peace
at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full,
I have savored much,
Good friends, good times,
my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Do not lengthen it now
with undue grief.
Lift your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
