THE LIFE OF

Hazel L. Fields

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. ~2 Timothy 4:7-8

Hazel L. Fields was born on March 27, 1936, to Jacob Fields and Ira Bell Conway in Shannon, MS. She departed this life on May 12, 2026, at the Tupelo Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

At an early age she confessed her hope in Christ and joined the Poplar Springs CME Church in Shannon, MS. After uniting in Holy Matrimony with Richard Fields, Sr., she united with the Pine Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Shannon, MS.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Richard Fields, Sr., parents, Jacob Fields, Jr. and Ira Bell Conway Fields; siblings, Walter Fields, Jacob Fields, Margaret LaGrone, Willie L. Fields, Robert Curtis Fields, Mack Fields, Sally Fields Osborn, Ira Lou Johnson and Olivia F. Walker.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Rhonda Fields and Richard Fields, Jr.; her grandchildren, Kya Fields, Ja'Karrious Wortham, and Miracle Satterwhite; her great grandchildren, Kylie and Deon; her sister, Joanner Palmer, several nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

In quiet grace, they walked this earth,
A gentle soul of boundless worth.
With loving hands and heart so true,
They brought light and hope to all they knew.
Though time may take them from our sight,
Their memory still shines warm and bright.
In every smile, in skies above,
We feel the echo of their love.
The years may pass, the tears may fall,
Yet precious moments stay with all.
For those we love never depart—
They live forever in the heart. Author Unknown
