TO: DADDY

As we speak to you in prayer
To let you know we love you
And just how we care
Take our million teardrops
Wrap them up in love
Then ask the wind to carry them
To you in heaven above

“MY DAD ALWAYS MADE US LAUGH”

My dad could light a room with just one grin. A joke was always waiting deep within. He'd tell a story, twist it just enough to have us doubled over laughing tough.

He never let the moment slip away. He found some joy in every kind of day. He'd tease, he'd joke, he'd make things fun and somehow hearts would weigh a ton less when he was done.

Even now, I hear his laugh so clear, it's like he's still standing near. And though my tears may fall today. I know he wouldn't want it any other way.

He'd say “Come on now” dry those eyes. Remember, laughter never dies. So I'll smile through my tears and when times get tough I'll think of Daddy – the man who made us laugh.
