

"As I sit in Heaven"

As I sit in Heaven
and watch you everyday
I try and let you know
with signs, I never went away. I hear you when you're laughing, and I watch you as you sleep, I even place my arms around
you, to calm
you as you weep.
I see you wish
the days away
begging to have me
home

So I try and send you signs, so you know you're not alone. Don't feel guilty that you have life.
Life that was denied to me,
Heaven is truly beautiful,
just you wait and see!
So live your life,
laugh again,
enjoy yourself, be free.
Then I'll know with each breath you take, you'll be taking one for me.

Obituary

Rosemary was born on December 25, 1948, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Neil and Mary Richardson. She was the oldest of thirteen children.

She graduated from Cincinnati Public Schools and later attended trade school, where she studied business. Rosemary went on to work for Sears for more than 30 years before retiring.

At an early age, Rosemary confessed Christ as her personal Lord and Savior. Her faith was important to her, and she was dedicated to serving in various organizations within the church throughout the years.

Rosemary was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life, Charles Moore Sr. Together, they shared 54 years of love, life, and memories.

Rosemary truly lived life to the fullest and found great joy in life's simple pleasures. She cherished family time and enjoyed chatting with her friends, both near and far. She loved going to lunch and shopping with her daughter, and she especially enjoyed spending time talking with her sons. She also loved her some "MeTV." Above all, Rosemary loved traveling to the mountains of Gatlinburg, a place that brought her much joy.

Rosemary had a true heart of gold, which she expressed through countless deeds of kindness and caring. She possessed a powerful intuitive sense and a special gift for empathy that often compelled her to provide for and care for individuals in need. Rosemary was a teacher, a listener, and someone who was never afraid to challenge those she loved. She encouraged others to believe in themselves and often reminded them, "You can do anything with God by your side."

Her love, wisdom, kindness, and words of encouragement touched the lives of many. She was truly a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend. While her physical presence will be deeply missed, the memories she created and the love she shared will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Continued Obituary

Rosemary was preceded in death by her parents, Neil and Mary Richardson; her brother, Eddie Richardson (Maggie); her sisters, Ethel Mae Richardson, Carolyn Richardson, and Louise Richardson; her sister-in-law, Ellen Richardson; her brothers-in-law, Mark Cosby and Robert Huff; her grandson, Calvin Moore; and her devoted friend, Mrs. Glaven Pinkey.

Left to cherish her precious memory are her beloved husband, Charles Moore Sr.; her children, Johnny Richardson, Gloria Christopher (William), and Charles Moore Jr. (Yvette); her siblings, Joanne Cosby, Finest (Ann), Joseph, Donald (Alicia), Isaac, Mary Ann Huff, Robert Sr. (Latrina), and Ted Sr. (Kelly); her devoted friends, Ms. Jackie Caldwell, Mrs. Mary Pierce, Mrs. JonElla Gaines, and Mrs. Gloria Talbert; her grandchildren, Johnny Richardson Jr., Jasmine Richardson, Reginald Stafford, Sameka Stafford, Nicole Jackson (David), Stephanie Christopher (Tiant), William Christopher (Danielle), Kevin Moore, Charles Moore III, Richard White, Kalyn White, Roshawn Watkins, Alexander White, and Sunday Moore; along with a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and many dear friends.

Rosemary's journey on this earth has come to an end, but the love she gave, the lives she touched, the memories she created, and the lessons she taught will live on forever. Her family and friends will remember her warm heart, her caring spirit, her wise words, and the simple moments that brought her so much joy. Rosemary was truly loved, and she will truly be missed.
