

In Loving Memory
Edmund W. McKay
March 10, 1936 - March 18, 2025

Edmund W. McKay was born March 10, 1936, at Olga, ND to William and Armanda (Monette) McKay. He grew up in the Milton area. On June 19, 1956, he married Eileen Gallaway at Grafton, ND.

He worked at the Oak Ridge Turkey Farm near Union, ND, and later at a sawmill in Pendleton, OR and as a logger in the State of Washington. They moved back to North Dakota where he worked as a custodian at Red River High School in Grand Forks for over 30 years. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and NASCAR.

He is survived by his wife, Eileen, children: Mollie (Glenn) Leeson, Moorhead, MN, Edward (Nancy) McKay, Thompson, ND, Linda Orona, Grand Forks, ND, Roger McKay, Fargo, ND, Jeremy McKay, East Grand Forks, MN, grandchildren: Tim and Amanda; Luke and Ann Marie; Felix, Jr., Bobbi Jo, and Theresa, and Preston, 12 great grandchildren. Also surviving are his siblings: John McKay, Willie (Evelyn) McKay, and Rose Radway.

Preceding him in death were his parents, son, Lyle, and brother, Ralph McKay and sister, Edith Einerson.

Edmund W. McKay, 89, of East Grand Forks, MN, passed away Tuesday, March 18, 2025, at Altru Hospital in Grand Forks, ND.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Friday, March 28, 2025 - 10:00 a.m.

St. Boniface Catholic Church

Walhalla, North Dakota

CLERGY

Rev. Fr. Jason Asselin

CONGREGATIONAL HYMNS

"Softly and Tenderly"

"Servant Song"

Bernadine Kopf, Organist Lisa Dalzell, Cantor

CASKET BEARERS

Wayne Buckholz David Galloway

Damian McKay Lucas McKay

Preston McKay J.R. Orona

INTERMENT

Vang Cemetery

Walhalla, North Dakota