

Gone Fishin'

*I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.*

*Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.*

*Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.*

*Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.*

*We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.*

*That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.*

*To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.*

*If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'.*

Christopher Michael Bosworth

Christopher Michael Bosworth, 50, of Sedalia, passed away on Friday, May 17, 2024, at his home in Sedalia. He was born on April 15, 1974, in Honolulu, HI, the son of Gregory Wayne Bosworth, who resides in Kansas City, MO, and Melva Jean (Vinson) Bosworth, who preceded him in death.

Christopher, a man of remarkable sociability, possessed a heart that was always ready to lend a hand to those in need. Despite his lifelong battle with diabetes, Christopher's spirit remained undimmed, his social life with family and friends unaffected. His family held a special place in his heart, and he cherished every opportunity to gather with them and his friends. Christopher found joy in collecting vintage records and memorabilia, and he had a deep love for fishing and his beloved pet, Miley.

In addition to his dad, Christopher is survived by a sister, Stephanie Yeager of Sedalia; two brothers, Jeffrey Bosworth of Kansas City, MO, and Shawn Bosworth of St. Joseph, MO; two nieces, Aalea Yeager of Kansas City, MO, and Nikita Yeager of Scottsdale, AZ; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

In addition to his mother, Christopher was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Mable Vinson and Melvin Vinson, and paternal grandparents, Richard Wayne and Wuanita Bosworth.
