

Mom,

The day you left a piece of me left as well. I am so glad that God gave me to you. You were a loving and hardworking woman. You were an amazing mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. You filled my life with joy and meant the world to me. I love you with all my heart. I am going to truly miss you. We will all be alright. I'm going to make sure of it. Until we meet again. Love Always Nisha

Mom,

I wish I had the words to tell you how much you mean to me. Through the ups and downs, you always kept a smile, blessed and hugged us. Through everything you still uplifted us while trying to hold yourself up. Just knowing you're still watching and guiding us gives me the confidence and strength to keep moving forward. You taught me to never put my head down when faced with a problem. I smile knowing you showed us so much love and attention. You forever gave us happiness and joy. I love you DeShawn

Ma,

I can't express enough how much I love and care about you. You're my world. You did so much for me throughout my entire life. I will always be thankful and blessed to call you my mom. Throughout our ups and downs we stood side by side, hand in hand, knowing that I got you, and you got me. You know when we meet again I have a whole lot of stories and jokes to tell you.

Love you forever and ever Cam

Obituary

Teresa Ann Thornhill was born on July 22, 1967 in Cincinnati, Ohio to her parents, Edna and the late Barry Thornhill. She went Home to be with the Lord on January 24, 2024.

Teresa grew up in Winton Terrace where she was surrounded by many friends. She would later consider these friends more like her family. She attended Winton Terrace Elementary, Chase, and Schwab schools and would go on to become a graduate of Aiken High School, class of '86. She worked for Cincinnati Public Schools as a custodian for over seventeen years.

She was an avid reader and always carried a novel. She had a love for music and old tv shows, especially Andy Griffith. She never hesitated to let you know about her YouTubers who she said "never steered her wrong." She faithfully watched the cooking channel but never tried a recipe. A trip to Walmart was like going to the beach, she could spend hours there. Her favorite treats were chocolate covered cherries and ginger snaps. Her love for Pepsi would have the CEO wondering why there's overstock.

She was a loving and caring person that was truly devoted to her family. She was a constant encourager and her love was unconditional. She warmly welcomed everyone into her home. She embraced life and its many challenges and welcomed each day with gratitude, strength and joy. Teresa accepted Christ at an early age and always trusted and believed that God would work things out, no matter what the situation entailed. She stood on Matthew 7:12 Treat others as you want them to treat you (CEV).

She was preceded in death by her sister, Tanisha Thornhill and her grandparents, Lloyd and Ruth Oliver. She is survived by her mother, Edna; children, Tanisha Thornhill, DeShawn Thornhill and Cameron Thornhill; grandchildren, Aireyana Levett, Ca'Vonte Moore, Tariyah Byrd, Shawntasia Thornhill, Shawnquez Thornhill, Shawn'najia Thornhill and Shawntez Thornhill; great grandchild, A'Raylin Terrell; siblings, Terrance (Lynn) Thornhill, Kimberly Thornhill and Barry Thornhill; nieces and nephews, DeAnte' (De'De') Judkins, Terrance (Alicia) Starks, Dexter Thomas, Jr., Charity Thornhill, DeAsha Thornhill and Joshua Thornhill.

Matthew 25:23

His Lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.
