Obituary

Johnny "Guitar" Figgs was born on December 31, 1954 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Rosa Lee Figgs and Richard W. Figgs. He was the fifth child that blessed this union.

Johnny attended St. Mark Elementary and Withrow High School. After high school, he worked at Jay Instrument for 24 years as a Pressure Tester and also worked as a Property Manager for Elliott Properties for 15 years.

Johnny attended True Divine Kingdom Ministries International under the spiritual leadership of his daughter, Apostle Felisha Coady. He was the lead guitarist and deacon of the church. Everyone called him "Deacon Brother Johnny."

Johnny was a gifted musician and could play almost any instrument. His greatest passion was playing the guitar; he is known for being one of the greatest. He was an inspiration to many and unselfishly taught others how to play the guitar, along with other instruments. As a father, he shared his gifts with his daughter and encouraged her to carry out his legacy.

He was preceded in death by: his parents, Rosa Lee Figgs and Richard W. Figgs; grandmother, Elizabeth Green; foster brother, Orville Bennett and godfather, Joseph Walker.

Johnny leaves not to mourn, but to cherish his memories; his only daughter, Felisha L. Coady; brother, Richard Figgs, Roland Figgs, Daryl Figgs and Dr. Keith Jones; sisters, Mary Hall, Angela Figgs and Fay Figgs; goddaughters, Denise Washington and Chenelle B. Price and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

"If there was anything else that I would rather be, I think I'd like to be a music melody. I'd move with rhythmic motions through the air, creating lots of happy music while spreading it everywhere."

Johnny

23rd Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
