

In Loving Memory

“Of all the things in the world that are worth your whole soul and devotion, let it be your family.” - Jeffrey R. Holland

Deborah Bridget Hales
1949 ~ 2026

Deborah Bridget Hales

Born

November 9, 1949
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Passed Away

February 18, 2026
Pocatello, Idaho

Funeral Service

Saturday February 28, 2026 11:00 A.M.
Gwen LDS Ward Building
Pocatello, Idaho

Officiating

Bishop Lyle Scow
Gwen Ward

Compassionate Services

Gwen Ward Relief Society

Concluding Services

Mountain View Cemetery
Pocatello, Idaho

Services

Family Prayer Stan Hales Sr., Husband
Organist Becca Hyde
Chorister Ginny Christensen
Opening Hymn #219

“Because I Have Been Given Much”

Invocation Lilli Hales, Granddaughter
Life Sketch Kristi McBride, Daughter
Speaker Nate Hales, Son
Musical Selection Jacqueline Weir and Jennifer Contreras

“I Know That My Redeemer Lives”

Accompanist: Jennie Wright

Speaker Clint Hales, Son
Speaker Stan Hales Jr., Son
Closing Remarks Bishop Lyle Scow
Benediction Krue Hales, Grandson
Dedication of Grave Kaden Hales, Grandson

Bearers

Thomas Smith
Stan Jr. Hales
Nate Hales

Michael Wilburn
Clint Hales
Robert McBride

Honorary Bearers

Kaden Hales
Max McBride

Krue Hales
Grant Hales

Owen McBride
Van Hales