

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love

But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past

So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart

OBITUARY

Dr. Cynthia Yvonne Murray, 71, of Camden, SC passed away from this physical life on Monday, March 24, 2019 in Lexington, SC.

Born in Camden, SC on July 1st, 1947, she was the only daughter of the late Edward T. Murray and the late Bessie Johnson Murray.

She was the valedictorian of her high school class at the now defunct Boylan Haven Mather Academy, and went on to graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and ultimately the University of South Carolina-Columbia with her Masters and Ph.D. in Developmental Psychology.

Serving as a licensed and certified School Psychologist in the schools of South Carolina for over 25 years, she retired from the Kershaw County School District in 2005. She served by appointment to the SC Foster Care Review Board

A lifelong learner, she lead an active intellectual life, which included speaking French, German, and Spanish, closely following politics and international relations, researching & publishing genealogical profiles, and avidly consuming many genres of music and literature. She joined her favorite authors in 2014 when she published her educational thriller "Reading, 'Riting, and Ruthlessness" through Amazon.com.

As a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Dr. Murray helped to found both her undergraduate chapter at WU-Madison and the graduate chapter in Camden.

A divorcee, she married twice, first to George Benjamin Boykin, and lastly to Woodrow James.

She was predeceased by her second husband Woodrow James, and beloved pets: Ogi, Edmund, and Samra.

Dr. Murray is survived by her two sons: George Murray Boykin, and Hasan Johnson James both of Camden, SC; her sister Lois Gaither Newton of Tyler, TX; her two nephews: Jon Cedric Newton of Tyler, TX and Justin C. Newton of Katy, TX; and her cousin, Dionne Lane of Lithonia, GA.

SCRIPTURES

"Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven." — Mat 6:1

"Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;" — Col 4:2

"Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven."
— Mat 18:21-22

"After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen."
— Mat 6:9-13

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, - Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." — Gal 5:22
