

BRATING THE LIFE OF

RY MAGDALENE POWE

SUNRISE: MAY 15, 1935

SUNSET: SEPTEMBER 21, 2023

OCTOBER 10, 2023

VIEWING: 3:30 p.m.

SERVICE: 4:00 p.m.

JOSEPH H. BROWN JR. FUNERAL HOME

2140 N. Fulton Avenue

Baltimore, MD 21217

Officiating: Apostle Clendon Terry

ORDER OF SERVICE

Musical Prelude

Opening Prayer

Reading of the Holy Scripture

Old Testament Scripture

New Testament Scripture

Prayer of Comfort

Acknowledgments & Card Reading

Musical Selection (Chunta Otts)

Reflections & Remarks

(2 minutes)

Musical Selection

Reading of the Obituary and Family Poem

(Silently)

Eulogy

Apostle Clendon Terry (Promise Land Church Ministries)

Call to Christ

Benediction

Recessional

INTERMENT

Private

OBITUARY

On Thursday September 21, 2023, the Lord called home Mary Magdalene Powe a phoenix of her time rising from every situation thrown her way. Leaving a bright light wherever she went Mary was born on May 15, 1935 in Sumter, SC as the oldest of 4 children from the union of the late James & Mamie Harvin.

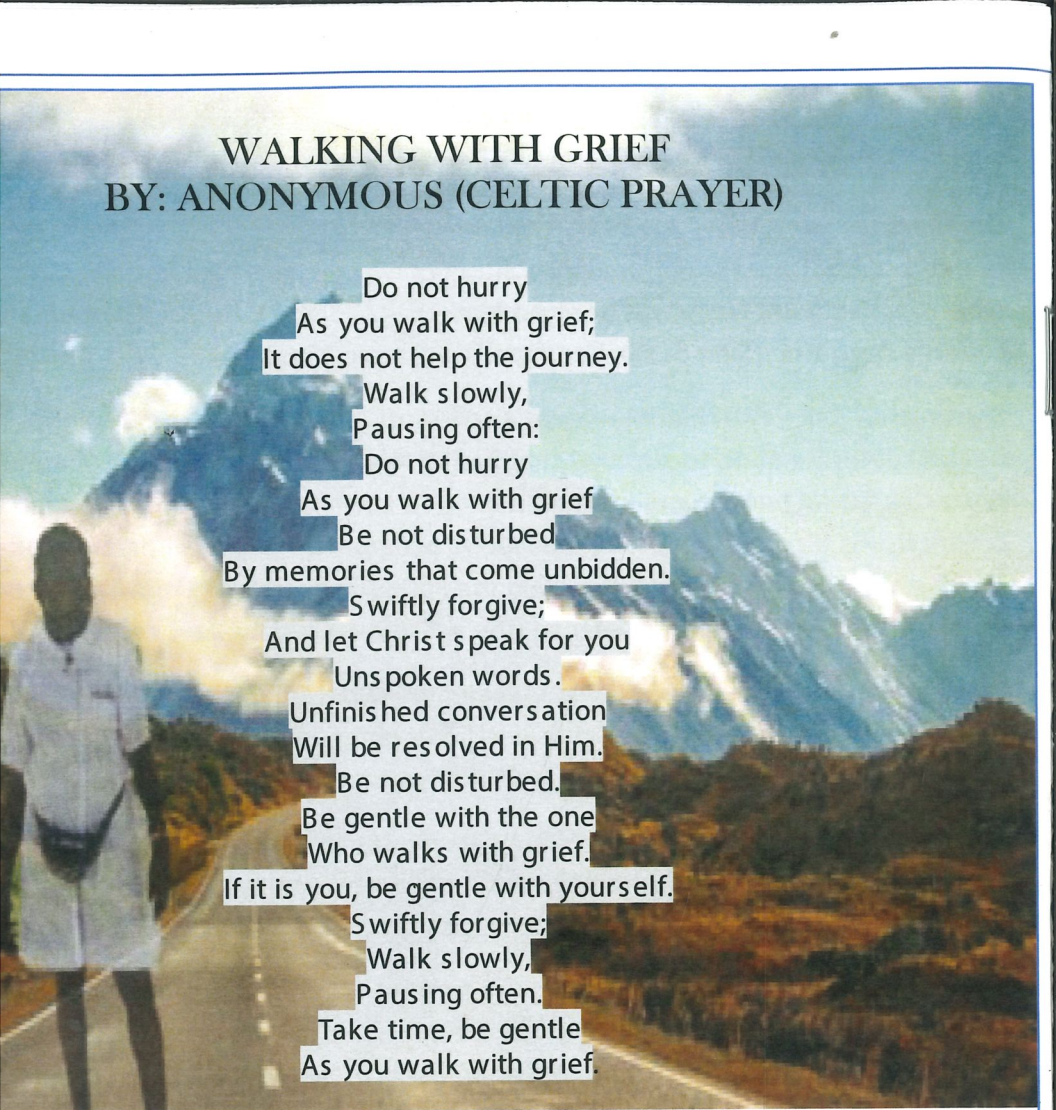

Starting her journey of life, Mary was a self-motivator with a persevering spirit and a healthy determination to succeed that fueled her ability to overcome numerous obstacles. Using her wit and insatiable drive to learn, Mary obtained several certifications through continuing education programs. These certifications afforded her the opportunity to be employed in the Federal government as a Travel Logistics Clerk for the Department of Defense (the agency she would later retire from).

Mary was a phenomenal cook who enjoyed cooking for her family in her spare time. Cooking was a skill and a hobby that was self-taught at a young age. You couldn't go to Mary's house and leave without enjoying a home cooked meal.

Mary met and married the late Willie Powe and out of that union came 6 children; Gloria (Arylon) Brooks, the late Keith Powe, the late Stanley M. (Antoinette) Powe, the late Willie Powe, Jr., the late Nicholas A. Powe, and Juanchenia M. Hinds.

Later in life, she accepted Christ and was a member of Promise Land Church Ministries in Catonsville, MD. Mary was a committed church goer who was loved by her church family until her health began to decline. She had a light that shined bright through her contagious laughter and many timely jokes.

Mary leaves to mourn her two remaining children: Gloria (Arylon) Brooks and Juanchenia Hind; her sister, Alice Harvin; grandchildren- Arylon Jr., Aquia (Tion), Marquisha (Gerald), Quiana, Darius, Julia and Joshua. Along with great-grandchildren; Isaiah, Jovaun, Jamar, Kaylah, Kacey, Tion Jr, Braxton, Darius Jr., Naomi and Nathaniel; and a great great grandchild- Khy'ree. She also leaves behind her Aunt Della (104 years old), a special nephew Andre, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was preceded in death by her brother Robert (Rock) Harvin, her sister Elease Harvin, and host of other family members.

A photograph of a person walking on a paved road that leads towards a range of mountains. The person is in the foreground, slightly to the left, wearing a light-colored shirt and shorts. The background features a large mountain peak under a blue sky with some clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

WALKING WITH GRIEF

BY: ANONYMOUS (CELTIC PRAYER)

Do not hurry
As you walk with grief;
It does not help the journey.
Walk slowly,
Pausing often:
Do not hurry
As you walk with grief
Be not disturbed
By memories that come unbidden.
Swiftly forgive;
And let Christ speak for you
Unspoken words.
Unfinished conversation
Will be resolved in Him.
Be not disturbed.
Be gentle with the one
Who walks with grief.
If it is you, be gentle with yourself.
Swiftly forgive;
Walk slowly,
Pausing often.
Take time, be gentle
As you walk with grief.

THANK YOU for sharing in celebrating the Life of Mary Magdalene Powe

sincerely grateful for all who contributed time, words of encouragement and fort, continuous prayers, love and support during this time of sadness, yet celebration.

e continue to keep our family in your prayers and continue to encourage us during this time of grief.