Life Reflections

Johnny Jones was born on August 2, 1930 to the late David Jones and Katherine Belton Jones in Kershaw, South Carolina. He departed this earthly life on March 31, 2026.

At an early age, he gave his life to Christ. He attended Winchester High School in Monroe, North Carolina. He enlisted in the United States Army Corp. and received an honorable discharge in 1954, after serving in the Korean War.

After his service, he moved to Brooklyn, New York where he joined Little Rock Baptist Church. In 1956, he met the love of his life Dorcas at church. They married in 1957 and their union was blessed with four children.

A man of many skills, he worked across general contracting, manufacturing, and transportation throughout his life. He will be remembered for his dedication, resilience, and the pride he took in providing through honest work. In his free time, he enjoyed golf, billiards, road trips and fellowshipping.

After retirement, Johnny and Dorcas moved to Sumter, SC and joined Mount Zion Baptist Church where they served on the Deacon Board. Johnny was a true missionary, sharing his faith and serving others every chance he got. He often visited those that were sick and shut in. Through his actions and character, he embodied the kind of life God calls us to lead.

Johnny is survived by his loving wife, Dorcas Jones; his children: Issaac (Deborah) Jones, Monique (Tyrus) Day, Van Dyke Jones, Adrienne Jones; his sister, Beatrice Colbert; his grandchildren: Emily Fair, Leslie (Geofrey) Henderson, Keivanna Jones, Celestine Jones, Keishanna Jones; his great grandson, Vandrick Desper; and a host of other relatives and friends.
