I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God has laid you see.
 I took His hand when I heard him call;
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way;
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much;
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts and send thanks to thee.
 For God loved me so much that He set me FREE.

Mrs. Jacqueline Neely Brown, 62, of 428 Castlewood Circle, Rock Hill, SC 29730 departed her earthly journey on Tuesday, March 10, 2026. Jackie, was affectionally known by her family as “Jackie” or “Big Jack”.

Jackie was born on December 1, 1962 in Rock Hill, SC, to Mr. Willie G. Neely, Sr. (Dizzy) and the late Mrs. Nancy Ruth Martin Neely. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Mr. Arthur Martin, Sr and Mrs. Candas Culp Martin and paternal grandparents, Mr. Jefferson Neely, Sr. and Mrs. Isabell Cunningham Neely; aunts: Carrie Boyd (Rev. J Boyd), Queen E. Culp (Willie James) Connie McCullough (Evans), Julie Martin, Beatrice Williams; uncles: Ulyssess Martin, Jefferson “Sonny Boy” Neely, Roosevelt Neely (Frances), Henry Neely, James “Jim” Neely, David Neely.

Jackie started her spiritual journey at an early age as a member of Bethel United Methodist Church in Edgemoor, SC where she attended until her health declined and she could no longer attend; however, her faith in God never wavered. She was a graduate of the Class of 1982 at Rock Hill High School, Rock Hill, SC. Jackie enjoyed reading, but you could find her at home watching some good movies when she wasn’t working or visiting family. She loved her family...it brought her so much joy and laughter to hang out with them, especially her grandchild, Emoree Sanai Foster, who loved having long conversations with her Gran-Gran, Jackie. She loved dancing and laughing...which brought so much joy to her. She was most recently employed by Transaxle of America until her health declined. She was also employed by Leiner’s and Pharr Yarn, Clover SC for a number of years; she was not afraid of work. She wanted the best for everyone and would encourage those to do their very best. She enjoyed entertaining family and friends as wells as friends of family members at her house; her home was always welcoming. We will all miss her laughing so hard that should could not get her story out until she finished laughing.

Jackie, in addition to her father, leaves behind in loving memory; husband: James W. Brown, of the home; son: De’Juan J. “DJ” Shealey of Spartanburg, SC; daughter: Rayneesha N.
