

Thank you with Love...

Maria, she looked forward to receiving your cards.

Cousin Angela, Bill, and Andrea, she appreciated your visits and couldn't stop talking about the last visit.

Cousin Ada, she looked forward to hearing about what you were going to cook, when you were getting your hair or nails done, and your next travel date.

Cousin Natasha, she deeply loved you more than you know, and would often request only crystal geysers water

Friends Sharon and Rovella, for consistently staying in contact with her by calls and visits.

Even when she didn't want to talk, she appreciated seeing your missed calls and emojis.

Neighbor Reenie (Laureen), thank you so much for watching the house and making sure the grass and bushes were cut. Please thank Ty; he was wonderful.

Kenny Bell, Aunt Rosemary was very appreciative of the kindness you showed us in assisting to make things happen.

We want to acknowledge all who were so patient and encouraging to her, Indian Spring of Oakley in Cincinnati, Ohio, the Therapy and aides Hanna and Marissa.

Concord Reserve of Westlake, Ohio- Thank you to the entire staff (admissions, social work, nursing, aides, therapy, dietary, dining, etc.). She couldn't have asked for a better place to provide her patience, comfort, and lots of recreation.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you

Obituary

Rosemary Drivers fell asleep in death Friday, June 13, 2025. She was born September 18, 1942, to Mary Louise Cox and Waddell Ohara.

She graduated from Our Lady of Angels High School and worked at Cincinnati Bell until retiring. Rosemary enjoyed traveling and a good meal. She would occasionally cook a meal for her family. She made a good mac and cheese with glazed crackers on top. Rosemary was feisty, funny, and loving.

Rosemary was preceded in death by her two mothers, Cora Drivers (Leroy) and Mary Louise Moore (Ernest), and Waddell Ohara, as well as her favorite Auntie Rosalee “Lil Auntie” Ferguson (Monti) and niece, Sophina Brooks.

She left to mourn her sister, Ernestine Brooks, along with her nieces Margo Vincent (Steve), Sophia “Tiny” Brooks, and nephew Jamern “Poncho” Brooks. Loving cousins, Ada Mumford (Richard- Deceased), Vanessa, Richard, Michael, Lisa, Angela Davis (William), Natasha Roland, Gail Balman (Marshall), Dewey “Sonny” Roland (deceased), Andrea, Maria, MyShira, Brionna, and a host of other cousins.

Tribute- From Little Sister Ernestine Brooks-

To “My Sister,” I am very happy for having you in my life. I have enjoyed our talks about books, movies, clothes, and things sisters do. You are just asleep when you awake, we will enjoy living forever in paradise on earth under Jehovah’s kingdom, ruled by his son Jesus Christ. Matthew 6:9,10; Daniel 2:44 and Revelation 21:3,4. It has been nice being the little sister. I love you, My Sister Forever.
