

THE FINAL FLIGHT

Don't Grieve for me, for now I'm Free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral arrangement, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Wherever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever your part.

We appreciate it all.

OBITUARY

Bennie Lee Hall, Jr. was born December 14, 1970, in Jamaica Queens, New York to Bennie Lee Hall Sr. and Jennie Ray Hall. He was the second eldest of five children.

Bennie was baptized a short time after his birth by Rev. Dr. H. L. Harvey at the New Friendship Baptist church where he was a member with his family. Bennie graduated from Withrow High School's class of 1989. Bennie went on to become a man of many trades with a love for construction, he was a lover of all thing's sports. Though his passion was seen in the game of baseball under the teachings of his father with his favorite team, forever being the hometown New York Mets. He continued playing baseball as an adult and enjoyed the game with a host of childhood best friends (the Rat Pack). Bennie shared his love of sports with his children who saw him as a superhero who taught them to enjoy every moment that life has to offer just as he did as the life of the party.

Bennie was a loving and caring soul who aimed to make everyone feel welcomed, with a smile that could light up the room. Bennie would uplift all in his presence and used that in his volunteer work with friends. When called upon he was always willing to help and share his knowledge of the task at hand.

Bennie was preceded in death by his grandparents: Warren Hall Sr., Alice Hall and Carrie Hall; maternal grandparents Eugene and Ophelia Jackson; uncles and aunts.

Bennie leaves behind his beloved nine children: Quintin L. Hall (LaKeisha), Brandon Hall, Jamila Hall, Monier Fairbanks, Bennie L. Hall III, Kamali Hall, Marvin Hall, Mylan Hall, and James Hall; his beloved wife, Sheila Webber Hall; twelve grandkids; siblings: Michael L. Hall Sr., Chanda Y. Hall, Robert A. Moore and Alicia M. Hall; five nieces; four nephews; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who he loved dearly.
