

BROTHER

Brother oh brother I miss you so still don't understand why you had to go. Everyday I wake up and hope it was a bad dream, but get on Facebook and it's the thing. So much love and beautiful stories. Everybody loved you, so I still don't understand why you had to go. But as you see, and as we know you touched a lot of hearts for sho. Your kids adore you as well as their moms. From hood to hood so many friends , brothers and sisters, even a few aunts plus uncles. You gotta be extra special to get that title. Everybody was my brother's peoples. He loved everybody and everybody loved him. So I still don't see why you had to go. Brother I miss you so, I love you Brother oh Brother your big sister Lasandra "Sone" Freeman.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

THE OBITUARY

Charles “Fatmn” Freeman, Jr., was the born on February 12, 1981 in Cincinnati, Ohio the son of Charles Washington and Donna Freeman. He was the fourth child of five children to his parents and was the first born son.

Fatman was the Patriarch of the family. He was a great provider to his six children. He was a caring brother, beloved son, grandson and a wonderful soul mate. Charles was a great man who took very good care of his family and friends. He was respected by all and to know Charles was to love him. He was the best friend you have ever ask for. He loved his family and we loved him always and forever until forever ends.

On December 5, 2017 Charles was called home to be with his mother Donna Freeman-Murphy; his little brother Jarmar “Esco” Freeman and his niece, Jahkia Washington.

Charles leaves behind his grandmother; Sallie Mae Washington; Father, Charles “Sunny” Washington; Six Children, Charles “Tink” Freeman, III (Tamika Morris); Ashlyn, Cameron, Christopher, Annette Freeman (Taryn Suttle-Freeman), Baby Charleigh Miller. He also leaves behind three sisters, LaMica Edwards, Tiffany Freeman and LaSandra Freeman; two brothers, Antonio Washington-Allen and Jarvis Tuggle, Sr., also a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles and many dear friends.

A MESSAGE FROM A WIFE”

I love you so much I can barely breathe.
Words can't express what you mean to me.
My lover, my friend, my protector, my king, I prayed that the ancestors would bring you back to me.
I know you're not here, it's so hard for me to believe that I can't have you here with me.
We had our moments but we both knew the truth, because when I follow my heart, it lead me back to you.
I will keep you alive in our memories. I promise that our children will have a good life. I LOVE YOU ALWAYS AND FORVER, UNTIL FORVER ENDS

Love Always,
Your Wife, Taryn Suttle-Freeman
