Tribute to Evelyn Brock LPN.

She Knew Her Stuff

This poem was written in the 16th century -"Christ Has No Body"
Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
Compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good,
Yours are the hands with which He blesses all the world,
Yours are the eyes, yours are His body
Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on this earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which He looks
compassion on this world
Christ has no body now on earth but Yours.

Obituary

Evelyn Jacinta Hamlett-Brock was called home to be with the Lord on February 11, 2026, her 43rd birthday. She was born in Kansas City, Missouri, on February 11, 1983, to Raymond Eugene Hamlett and LaVera Denise Banks.

Evelyn accepted Christ at an early age at Skylight Baptist Church, where she was also a member and sang joyfully in the Angel Choir. Later, she attended Bethlehem Antioch with her mother and brothers, while occasionally joining Evangelistic Center services online.

From a young age, Evelyn's energy and spirit shone brightly. At just four years old, she joined the KC Marching Sizzlers Drill Team where she proudly performed until the age of eleven. She attended Bancroft Elementary, Ruskin High School and later graduated from Job Corps, followed by Avila University in Kansas City, Missouri, where she pursued her Bachelor of Science in Nursing and LPN license.

Evelyn began working at KFC, but her true calling was in caring for others. She devoted more than 25 years to healthcare, serving as a CNA, CMT, and LPN at Grandview Manor, John Knox Village, and numerous other nursing facilities across Missouri and Kansas.

While dedicating herself to her career, Evelyn also found love with Tirrell Brock Sr. The two were united in marriage on February 23, 2009, in Kansas City, Missouri, and shared over 15 beautiful years together. Their marriage was blessed with children, whom they raised with boundless love, care, and faith. Evelyn had a compassionate heart and a joyful spirit that touched everyone she met. She loved spending time with family – hosting Sunday dinners, celebrating holidays, and sharing laughter during board and card games. With her aunts Camilla and Paqueshia, they formed a dancing group called "Sugar, Spice, and Everything Nice." Evelyn also found joy in giving feeding the less fortunate and helping those in need whenever she could.

Her family remembers her with fond laughter through many stories. Like the time her mother tried to teach her how to barbecue and she nearly set the house ablaze, or how Evelyn would call friends and family to come "rescue" her from spiders no bigger than chickpeas, when she was twelve-year-old Evelyn decided to teach herself how to drive behind the wheel like she was in a scene from Set It Off!

Evelyn's life was one of adventure, compassion, and unconditional love. She leaves behind a legacy of warmth, generosity, and strength. Though she is no longer with us in body, her laughter, love, and spirit will forever live on and in our hearts as she watches over us from heaven.

Recessional

Scriptors

Though He causes grief, Yet He will show compassion
According to the multitude of His mercies.

Lamentation 3:32
Spoken by JayRon

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

Psalm 147:3
Spoken by Christopher

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life.
The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; ²⁶ and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

John 11:25-26
Spoken by DeVonte

"We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation."

Romans 5:3-4

We can say she's gone but I know she never actually left me, or any of us for that matter. God felt she fullfied her duties of being a great person to this world. And so he removed her and placed in a room where the only thing that mattered is what she loves and cares about so she continue to guide those and be a guardian to her people. She is forever with us. And always will be!

My mothers love
 my mothers love is one that is unmatched
 I felt my mothers love from the time that I hatched
 Though you're gone I still feel that you're here I cry at your thought because I wish that you were near.
 Our heads may have bumped but I still felt your love
 As soon as I cried you welcomed me with hugs
 I am your tink and nobody else, I hate this is goodbye I wish I could've helped Though this is temporary you're absence i still suffer
 There's no ache that's worse than the silence of my mother
