

"Twenty-Third Psalm"

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Celebrating the Life of

William Marty King
August 25, 1969 ~ July 19, 2025

Obituary

Mr. William 'Marty' King, 55, of Stoney Creek Drive, Elberton, peacefully entered his heavenly home on Saturday, July 19, 2025, at Piedmont Athens Regional Hospital following a brief battle with cancer. His last days were spent enjoying life, taking a few adventures, eating as much candy as he wanted, and surrounded by the love and care of his family and close friends.

Marty was born in Elberton on August 25, 1969, only child of Trudy Johnson King and the late Jerry Micheal King, better known as "Pops". He was well respected and loved by his classmates from the 1987 graduating class of Elbert County High School and earned his bachelor's degree of art after attending the University of Georgia. He was the Vice President of King's Monument Company and proud of the legacy his parents created.

Marty was a member of First Baptist Church, though in his final years attended Elberton First Presbyterian Church beside "Mama Trudy" where he fell in love with old hymns and wonderful teaching that not just enriched his life with a stronger, deeper faith but a relationship with God that he knew would carry him through and the ability to never fear his future, as he felt it was always in God's hands. Marty formerly served as Trustee of the Board of the Elberton Granite Association and was a member of the Elberton Country Club.

In addition to his mother, Trudy, of Elberton, he is survived by his children: Matthew John King and Katherine Mariel King; aunt, Tammy Fortson; cousins: Mendy (Travis) Christian and Jamie Carrington; former wife, Jean Delaney King; special friend, Becky Steele; and a host of lifelong friendships.

Marty was a loving father, son, and friend to so many. He always had a smile on his face even though life was hard. He had a passion for all things sports especially when it came to his Georgia Bulldogs or a beautiful green golf course on a Sunday afternoon final round.

Contributions may be made in his memory to Friends Helping Friends Club, 1027 Michiff Drive, Elberton, GA 30635, Elberton First Presbyterian Church, 154 S. McIntosh Street, Elberton, GA 30635, or Bethlehem Methodist Church cemetery fund, 1025 Welcome Church Road, Elberton, GA 30635.
