

Celebrating the Life of

Milo Jerome Myhre was born on May 23, 1936, in Kerkhoven, Minnesota, to Ole and Judith (Hokanson) Myhre. He grew up in the Kerkhoven community and graduated from Kerkhoven High School in 1954. He attended Anderson College in Indiana, earning his degree in education, and later received his master's degree in education from Mankato State College. Milo taught school in Peoria, Illinois, for one year before beginning a more than 30-year teaching career in Gardena, California, a suburb of Los Angeles. It was in California that he met the love of his life, Roberta "Robbie" Coke. They were united in marriage on March 8, 1969, and made their home in Cerritos, California.

Following his retirement in 1995, Milo and Robbie built a home on Lake Andrew, where they lived for many years. Milo continued to share his love of teaching at Ridgewater College in Willmar and Hutchinson. Milo enjoyed gardening, woodworking, and was a true do-it-yourself enthusiast. He loved socializing with people and had a deep passion for travel, enjoying both international adventures and road trips. Milo lived a full and blessed life.

Milo passed peacefully into eternity on Sunday, January 18, at the Woodwinds Hospital in Woodbury, at the age of 89.

Milo is survived by his loving wife, Robbie, of Cottage Grove; three children: Mark Myhre of Inver Grove Heights; Juliana "Jill" Myhre and her fiancé, James Baron, of Coon Rapids; and Sara and Jason Stadther of Cottage Grove; and three grandchildren, Makayla, Logan, and Liliana (Lily) Stadther, along with other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and eight siblings: Floyd, Lyla, Violet and Viola (twins), Gen, Harley, Adeline, and Joel.

Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want...
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters...*

*He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake...*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff,
they comfort me. Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine
enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
