LOVING MEMORIES

Your gentle face and patient smile with sadness we recall
You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart that loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part, from one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one, Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last we will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore, as time goes by we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can fill your vacant place.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy, words of comfort, and prayers during our time of bereavement.

THE LIFE STORY OF
EDNA E.
Knight

Edna E. Knight was born to the late Jimmie Henton and Eliza Hamilton on December 8, 1935, in Donaldsville, Georgia. She was affectionately known as "Dudda" and was the second oldest among her siblings: brothers Roy and Clarence Hamilton, and sisters Anna Ferrell, Jean Henton, and Mikki Hope.

Edna was married to the late George Knight, and their union was blessed with two daughters, Sabra and Cassandra.

She was educated in the public school system in Bainbridge, Georgia, and graduated from Hutto High School in 1957. Shortly after, she moved to Philadelphia with her sister Anna.

Edna worked as a clerk at the DonMar Hotel for ten years before joining the Holiday Inn, where she served as a Room/Laundry Attendant for thirty years. She was known for her kind and loving spirit and was admired by all her coworkers and friends.

Edna received Christ at a young age and was raised by her Aunt Rosa and Uncle Reverend J.C. Hamilton, where faith was a cornerstone of their home.

A devoted and protective mother, Edna gave her daughters the tools to become strong, productive women. She cherished family time, especially hosting Thanksgiving dinners. She also enjoyed playing the lottery and trips to Atlantic City with her daughter Cassandra, sharing special moments and laughter.

She leaves behind cherished memories with her daughter Sabra (David), as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear lifelong friends.

Sorrowfully Submitted, The Family
