THE LIFE STORY OF Lillie M. Jackson

Lillie M. Jackson was born in Leat, Mississippi, to John Henry Davis and Mary King. She peacefully transitioned this life on July 28, 2022.

Lillie, known as "Lil", was a very strong and determined woman, determined to survive and make her mark in life. At one point, she moved to Philadelphia. She had a love for sewing and her job at Botany 500.

Lil later united in marriage to the late Jack Jackson. She also became a member of New Hope Baptist Church. Lil liked traveling and sewing and family gatherings and soulful delights such as collard greens, cornbread, cowpea, fish, steak and chicken.

Lil was known for helping the community and the less fortunate as a volunteer. She fed the homeless among many other things.

Lillie leaves to mourn: her brother, Robert Davis; three sisters, Sallie Mae Davis, Ida Payne and Ernie; and husband, Dallas Batchelor; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
