

HOMEGOING CELEBRATION

REASONS

They say there is a reason,
 They say that till will heal.
 But neither time nor reason
 Will change the way we feel.
 Gone are the day we use to share
 But in our hearts you will always be there
 The gates of memory will never close
 And we miss you more than anyone knows.
LOVE AND MISS YOU EVERY DAY
 Your grandchildren.

EXPRESSIONS

So many emotions in my heart this day, overwhelming feelings that's hard to explain. Sadness: For losing you so soon even though I know you had to go and when I call your name you won't answer anymore. Emptiness: Because you've always been here for me, ever since I can remember. It was always "We three." Void:
 The time came when you walked through that door knowing that you would never return no more.

Shattered and Broken: Because now it's no longer "We three" and it hurts so bad but I know you want us to be okay with the
 "you and me." Grief: as sorrowful and heavy, as "our" hearts may be, I will do my very best to make you proud of the "you and me" of all the emotions I've tried to explain, there's still two left that yet remain.

Love: The two of us love you, Bennie Lloyd, but "God loved you best."

Happiness: We are happy that "God" didn't allow you to suffer, that "He" freed you from pain and gave you comfort. He opened up his arms and said with a smile, "Come unto me my child, it's time to rest a while."

Love always,
 Chase and Peaches

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

I'll always remember you for the rest of my life, because of the kindness and love you brought to my world.
 You were the perfect godfather for this girl. Your bright smile, style, and grace really made this world a better place. I know we must say goodbye, for now, but know that forever in my heart I will keep you for a while. "Until we meet again."

With love, Tonya Burks (Goddughter)

Punkin is what I will forever be,
 Throughout the years you were there for me.
 You have always encouraged me to follow my dreams and be all I desired, Regardless of the obstacles in life that have transpired.
 I remember when you rushed to my side in a time of grieve, just to give me a hug and ask "is there anything you need?"

To say goodbye I will never,
 But I will say see you later.

The love you have shown me was unconditional, and your punkin will forever cherish.

As tears fall thinking of memories of you,
 I just look up, smile, and say I love you forever too.
 May you rest peacefully.

Perhaps

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us this day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you dearly, whatever the part.

May God bless all of you.

Obituary

“Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me.”
 —John 14:1

MR. BENNIE LLOYD STUCKEY was born on October 25, 1957, to the late Mary Elizabeth Stuckey Malone and Bethel Alphonse Darius in Bentonia, Mississippi. Lloyd, as he was affectionately known, accepted Christ into his life at an early age, where he joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church under the late Reverend N.C. Taylor. He received his education at Gibbs Elementary School and Bentonia High School. He also attended Corp in Fort Worth, Texas. Lloyd enjoyed playing sports and watching football and basketball games, listening to all varieties of music, but above all, he truly loved God, and his family. Some might say that “Bennie Lloyd” was a peacemaker because he just wanted everyone to love each other and just simply get along in peace and harmony.

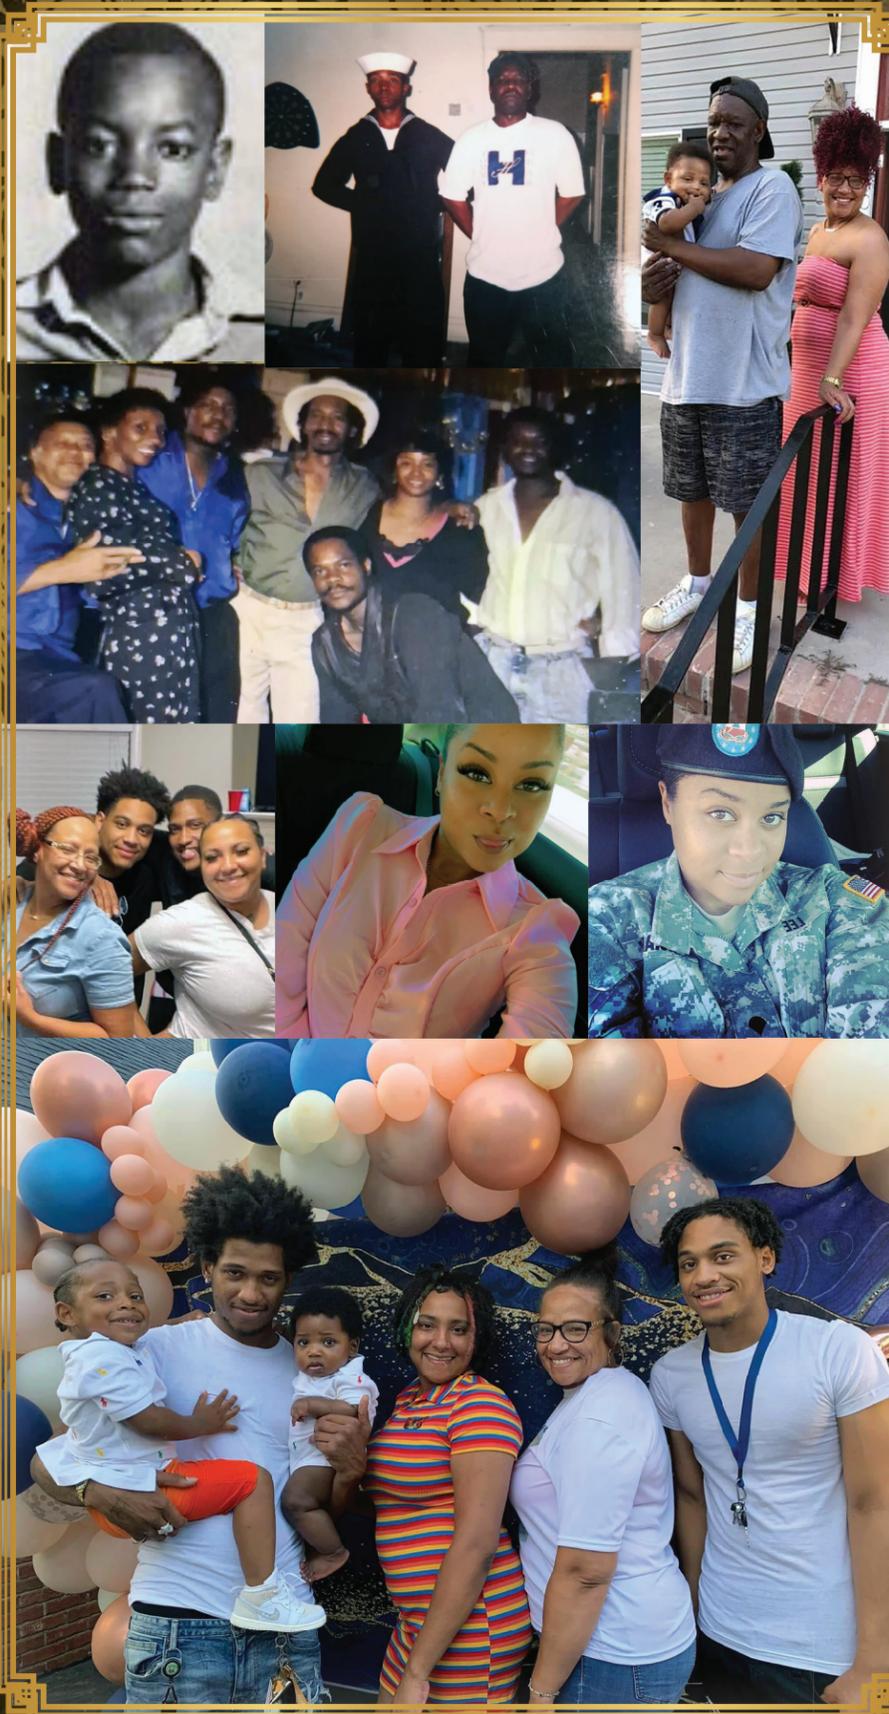

He gently passed away at St. Dominic Hospital in Jackson, MS on October 9, 2025

Bennie Lloyd was preceded in death by four siblings, Mrs. Sharon Malone-Johnson, Mr. Terry L. Malone, Mr. Michael G. Malone, and Mr. Evette N. Malone, all of Baltimore, Maryland.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one daughter, Lakeitta Brown Gainwell; three grandchildren, Markesia Brown, Markeius Johnson, Keelyn Green; two great-grandchildren, Tristian Dior “Big Man” Johnson and Ahi Kari Weatherspoon-Johnson, all of Jackson, Mississippi.

One daughter he reared with love, Ms. Sharice Lee of Chicago, Illinois; one brother, Mr. Richard L. Sickey (Andrea) of Bentonia; three sisters, Mrs. Trenedis R. Williams, Ms. Rhonda Faye Spires, both of Jackson, Mississippi, Ms. Deloris Ingram of Detroit, Michigan; two uncles, Mr. Harvey Darius and Mr. Sammie Price, both of Bentonia, Mississippi; five aunts, Mrs. Bobbie J. Jones of Baltimore, Maryland, Mrs. Ida Rucker of Bentonia, Mississippi, Mrs. Evelyn White, Mrs. Gloria Darius both of Detroit, Michigan, Mrs. Rosie L. Knight of Yazoo City, Mississippi; two sisters, through love, Ms. Thelma Burks and Mrs. Diana Burks-Demus (Robert) both of Bentonia, Mississippi; and an abundance of nieces, nephews, great-grands; one goddaughter, Ms. Tanya Burks of Yazoo City, Mississippi, and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

AN ODE TO MY DAD

*If tears could build a stairway, and memories a gentle lane,
 I would walk right up to that gate and bring you back again.
 No farewell words were spoken, no chance to say goodbye, you were gone before I realized it, and only the Divine know why.*

*You were a warrior—you put in a good fight.
 Even though I had to wipe your tears, you knew everything was going to be alright.*

*So you gathered your wings to take that flight. My heart aches with deep sadness, sorrow, and secret tears still flow
 The true meaning of my “love” for you, no one will ever truly know. Though my heart is shattered to its core I know you want me to mourn no more. But to find peace, and cherish all the joyful moments we shared. But just one last promise
 I make to you, my Dad—you will never be forgotten, and a special place in my heart you will forever have, filled with love and memories that will always last.*

—Your princess, Keda
