

God's Garden

Author: Melissa Shreve

God looked around His garden
 And found an empty place.
 He then looked down upon the earth,
 And saw your tired face.
 He put His arms around you
 And lifted you to rest.
 With the help of His angels,
 They flew you to your Heavenly place.
 God's garden must be beautiful,
 He always takes the best.
 He knew that you were suffering,
 He knew that you were in pain.
 He knew that you would never
 Get well on earth again.
 He saw the road was getting rough
 And the hills were hard to climb.
 So He closed your weary eyelids
 And whispered, "Peace be thine."
 It broke our hearts to lose you
 But you did not go alone...
 For part of us went with you
 The day God called you Home.

The Family's Message of Gratitude

We are truly honored by your presence here today as we have come to celebrate the well-lived life of our beloved Hannah. The calls and visits we have received concerning her passing have all warmed our hearts with pride. Simply knowing that she brought so much joy to so many has helped to lighten our grief. Your kindness and sympathy shared with us will never be forgotten. It is our prayer that God will continue showering you with his bountiful blessings.

Reflections of Life

When my life on earth is done and my face is no longer turned toward the rising sun, my life I have lived will speak for me – no additions or subtractions will need to be done.

Hannah Mae Walker was born in Lloyd, Florida on May 16, 1940, a few minutes after her twin sister, Mary Ann, to Samuel David Walker, Jr. and Bessie Roberts Walker. Hannah was raised in a Christian home by God-fearing parents who always taught her “to live by the Golden Rule” – treat others as you would like to be treated. Hannah was converted at a later age, but all through life, she was an astute Bible scholar. Hannah was quiet and reserved and didn’t say much, but, when she talked, people listened.

Hannah was educated in the public schools of Leon County and graduated from the original Lincoln High School in 1959. After high school, she graduated from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU), majoring in Pharmacy. She worked in Georgia, Virginia, Florida and New York as a Pharmacist. She never married but was a lovely aunt to her many nieces and nephews.

Sister Hannah Mae Walker was an avid reader and was quite knowledgeable in many different subject matters, including the Bible. On several occasions in Bible Study, Pastor Williams would ask a question and say anybody can answer this question except Hannah. He made that statement because she had answered most of the previous questions he had asked. Later in her life, she was a caregiver to her parents and her uncle, Julius Walker.

Sister Hannah Mae Walker leaves to cherish precious memories, her four sisters: Mary Ann Singletary (twin), Fannie (Willie) Mosley, Laura (Edmond) Rosier and Annie (Johnny Sr.) Rosier; one sister-in-law: Rosa Walker; three godchildren: Michael Johnson, Hannah Johnson and Adrienne Davis; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends and her Rock Hill Missionary Baptist Church family. Her parents and five siblings preceded her in death.

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away and although we love you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.
