

Someone Is Missing

Let this be a loving reminder that someone is missing today,
Someone our hearts still hold on to,
As we travel along life's way.
Someone who made life so special,
for all those who gather here,
Someone who won't be forgotten,
But cherished from year to year.
And now as we pause to remember,
Let us all fondly recall,
how dearly each of us loved him,
and oh... how he loved us all!

In Loving Memory of Ronald Eugene Scott

Ronald Eugene Scott, 75, of Quinter, Kansas, passed away on April 14, 2026, in Hays, Kansas.

Ron was born on October 30, 1950, in Colby, Kansas, to Orie Kenneth and Elizabeth Theresa (Fellhoelter) Scott. He was the fourth of seven children. Ron's childhood was spent in Oakley and Selden, Kansas, where he enjoyed playing outdoors and working in the barn. He always knew when it was chicken butchering day, as his mother would be in the kitchen wearing her white, stained tennis shoes, ready for a full day's work—those weren't his favorite days. In his youth, the family returned to Oakley, Kansas. Ron attended Oakley High School and graduated in 1968. During high school, he played football, wrestled, and enjoyed spending time with friends and driving cars. He and his brother Nick worked at their dad's gas and service station, the Fifth Wheel. He also helped out at the Ostmeyer Farm.

After graduation, Ron attended Colby Community College for one year, then transferred to Kansas State University for two years to study Geology. While at Colby Community College, Ron met Sandra K. Pilkington of Norton, Kansas. They were united in marriage on June 7, 1969, and welcomed three daughters: Amy Dawn, Mandy Sheree, and Sarah Janelle. Ron raised his family in Oakley, where he worked hard, followed his daughters to their sports and school activities, and made lasting family memories, including snow skiing trips.

Ron began his career in the millwright business, where he was trained and mentored by his father-in-law, John Pilkington. He worked for Pilkington Construction for many years and became a respected millwright. Eventually, he purchased and incorporated Scott Millwright Service in 2001, continuing its legacy. Scott Millwright has served managers of elevators, feed mills, and family farms for over 20 years.

Ron was united in marriage to Sandee Jo Mountain of Burlington, Colorado, on December 9, 2000, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Burlington, Colorado. Their daughter, Reegan Nicole, was born to this union. Together, they purchased their first home in Grinnell, Kansas, in 2001, and later moved to Quinter, Kansas, where they made their home for 19 years. Ron stayed busy following Reegan and Sandee's many school and social activities. He enjoyed camping, even braving storms to hold down the tent, and cherished spring break trips to the mountains for snow skiing and snowboarding with friends and family.

Ron attended Bethlehem Lutheran Church in WaKeeney, Kansas, where he served on the Church Council and was a member of the building committee. His faith and relationship with God remained steadfast throughout his life, providing him with strength in every chapter.

Ron had a great love for many things. He worked hard and loved hard, always taking care of his family, who were his greatest treasure. When he wasn't working, you could find him outside tending to his yard and flowers, taking vacations with family, hunting, or golfing with friends. His calm, loving demeanor made everyone around him feel comfortable and welcome.

Ron was diagnosed with Multiple Myeloma Cancer in February 2009. His strength, love, and determination carried him through a 17-year journey, and he was passionate about living a full, productive life despite his diagnosis.

Ron is survived by his wife, Sandee Mountain Scott of Quinter, Kansas; his children Amy Hullet and husband Kelvin of Bismarck, North Dakota, Mandy Scott of Quinter, Kansas, Sarah Scott and Larry Parker of Olathe, Kansas, Reegan Scott of Lawrence, Kansas; siblings Sandra Poston of Wichita, Kansas, Sharon Hockersmith and Greg Reaser of Wichita, Kansas, Daniel Scott and wife Terry of Superior, Nebraska, Joe Badger and husband Steve of Oakley, Kansas, Chris Robben and husband Dan of Oakley, Kansas; grandchildren Clayton Hullet, Landon (Gina) Hullet, Megan (Rheanna) Shea, Layla Parker, Jackson Parker; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth and Elizabeth (Betty); parents-in-law Jesse (Ed) and Evelyn Mountain; brother Robert (Nick) Scott; nephew Corey Scott; and brothers-in-law Harvey Hockersmith, Vernie Kuhlman, and John Poston.
