SCRIPTURE

I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. John 11:25

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.*

Tom was born on November 21, 1948, to Ervin and Irma (Ellison) Nixon. He graduated from Northeast Hamilton High School in 1967. He worked for the Iowa Department of Transportation in road maintenance until his retirement.

On September 7, 1968, Tom was united in marriage to Diane Kessel. To this union two children, Brent and Sunde, were born.

Tom was a devoted father who rarely missed his children's school activities. He especially enjoyed golfing at local courses with his brothers, sharing laughs and good company. He loved visiting with friends over a beer, always ready with a quick wit and a story to tell. Tom could often be found lending a hand to farmers with field work, something he looked forward to each fall.

He is survived by his spouse of 30 years, Rhonda; children: Brent (Amy) Nixon of Webster City and their son Cael, Sunde (Shawn) Sullivan of Coon Rapids, MN, Jake Pruisman of Williams, IA, and Avis (Adam) Pruisman of Williams and their daughter Joetta Schnell; siblings: Ron of Jonesboro, AR, , Shirley Crosser of Steamboat Rock, IA, Dick of Santee, CA, Janet Grandgeorge of Webster City, IA and Clara Robb of Des Moines, IA; as well as many extended family members. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Melvin. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Diabetes Association.

A life lived here, a spirit bright.
Now steps beyond the fading light
For Christ, the Truth, has made it known,
A seed in earth for life is sown.

He said, "I am the Resurrection."
A promise true for all creation.
"And I am Life," He gives this word,
That in His grace, our souls are stirred.

Though earthly bodies turn to dust,
A faithful soul finds hope and trust.
Through Jesus' name, who conquered death,
We live again with every breath.

So grieve, but with a hope that's deep,
While in His love, our hearts can keep.
For death has lost its sting, its power,
And joy awaits in that bright hour.

For those who call upon His name,
And in His love put all their claim,
Though silence falls, a song shall start,
New life to God, a brand-new heart.
