Obituary

November 5, 1954 ~ March 12, 2026

Mr. Raymond “Squeaky” Barber of 337 Hampton St, Rock Hill, South Carolina transitioned to his heavenly home on Thursday, March 12, 2026. He was born on November 5, 1954 to the late Margart Ann Joseph and Hebert Moore.

Raymond attended the public schools of York County. He was employed by York County Health Department in his early years of life. After leaving that job he spent over 30 years playing his guitar with various local groups like Plair, Hill City Band, Sole Commanders, the Blues Man Band, JB & Focus, Fantasy Band. His longest tenure was with General Johnson and Chairmen of the Board where he was the lead guitarist and was known to bring the energy.

Raymond was a member of Rock Grove AME Zion church and loved the Lord. He used his God given talent on that guitar to also play for Rock Grove, St Matthew and Mt. Moriah AME Zion churches over the years.

Preceding him in death and welcoming him into heaven are his daughter, Bridjala Guinn, brother, Jerry Joseph, and grandparents Mr. & Mrs. Ernest and Frances Barber.

Those he left to cherish fond memories of him are his daughter, Kimalyn Jennings of Charlotte, NC, son, Raymond B. Barber Jr. and son-n-law, David Guinn both of Rock Hill, SC; sisters, Dr. Kathy Barber, Darlene Heath and Angela Joseph all of Rock Hill, SC; brothers, Jerome Joseph (Angie) and Pernell Joseph both of Rock Hill, SC; grandchildren, Tiondra Jennings, Jasmine Barber, Leondra Barber, Jabreece Barber, Raymond Barber III, Jamarion Barber and Rayden Barber; uncle, James Willie Barber (Barbara) of Rock Hill, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*Although you have gone to be with the Lord, your humble spirit will live in our hearts forever; the memories that we shared and the lessons of kindness and love you taught will always be remembered!
We love and miss you*

Two Stars In The Sky

Two voices are silent,
two smiles now gone,
But their love remains,
holding strong, holding on.
A father’s strength, a brother’s grace,
No time can erase, no one can replace.
One taught me how to stand up tall,
The other taught me to climb the wall.
They were my anchors, my joy, my guides,
Now they walk together, side by side.
Though the sorrow hits like sudden rain,
I hold their memories to ease the pain.
They are not truly gone, but simply ahead,
Living in the words and love they spread.
Rest now, dear dad, rest now, dear brother,
You look out for me, and for each other.
Until the day we meet at heaven’s shore,
You live in my heart, forevermore.
