NORMA SUNDAY

Norma Sunday

Norma Jean Sunday, 90, of Antwerp, Ohio passed away Sunday, October 11, 2026 at the Antwerp Manor.

Norma was born in Markle, Indiana on April 18, 1936, a daughter of the late Elma (Couch) and Myron Lindley

She retired from Dana Weatherhead. Norma was able to travel to all of our fifty states. To commemorate her visits, she collected refrigerator magnets that she formed to make a map of our country. She will always be remembered for her green thumb that helped make her beautiful flower gardens, where she had numerous bird feeders. Her patriotism and pride for all veterans, especially those of her own family that served in the military will never be forgotten. Norma also loved to dance or simply enjoy music at the senior center.

Norma will be sadly missed by her children, Beth (Tom) Digate, Becky (Bill) Zartman, Susan (Wayne) Dobson, Jim (Gemma) Foster, Jon (Terry) Foster and Sudie (Chris) Foster; siblings, Delbert (Joy) Lindley, Donald (Roseanne) Lindley, Nancy Tricker, Tom (Ursula) Lindley; 20 grandchildren; 40 great grandchildren and 13 great great grandchildren.

She was also preceded in death by her husbands, Herman Foster, Phillip Ludwick and Kenneth Sunday; son, Joseph Foster and sister, Carolyn Dorman.

Norma's memorial service is Saturday, November 21st, 10:30 AM, with visitation one hour prior at Antwerp Global Methodist Church, 202 E. River Street, Antwerp.

Memorials are to Community Health Professionals, 250 Dooley Drive, Paulding, Ohio 45879 or Antwerp Manor Activity Fund, PO Box 759, Antwerp, Ohio 45813.
