I've Walked Where Jesus Walked

If I could go to Galilee
And walk where Jesus walked
And sit in tender grasses
On the hillside where He taught
If I could feel the gentle breeze
That lifted from the sea
Where he chose His humble fishermen
How full my heart would be
My spirit yearns within me
But it doesn't seem my fate
I'll never walk where Jesus walked
I'll never see... but wait
I worship in His temple
Where I know He's walked before.
Have His feet been down this hallway?
Have His fingers touched this door?
Has He stood here in this very room
And witnessed what I see?
In the beauty of His temple
I can feel His love for me.
I close my eyes and picture Him,
My worries melt away
I don't need to go to Galilee
Or travel far away.
For my tender heart is filled
With what He wants me to be taught
And my testimony burns within---
I've walked where Jesus walked!
