TERRI SUE
CATON

19 August 1955 ~ 23 July 2025

Always in our hearts,
never to be forgotten.

Born on August 19, 1955, in Lawton, Terri Sue was one of four children of Donald and Joyce (Barton) Collier. She grew up in Lawton, where she graduated and began building a life rooted in creativity, kindness, and service to others.

Terri had a love for sewing and quilting, often creating thoughtful handmade blankets that brought comfort to those around her. She also enjoyed coloring daily, finding joy and relaxation in her artwork.

For over 20 years, Terri enriched the lives of countless young people as a devoted cook and school bus driver at Navajo Public Schools. With a warm smile and a servant's heart, she nourished and safely transported generations of students across Southwest Oklahoma - leaving a lasting imprint on every child she served.

Terri Sue Caton passed away peacefully on Wednesday, July 23, 2025, - just 27 days shy of her 70th birthday.
