

I'm There Inside Your Heart

Right now I'm in a different place,
And though we seem apart,
I'm closer than I ever was...
I'm there inside your heart.

I'm with you when you greet each day,
And while the sun shines bright.
I'm there to share the sunsets too...
I'm with you every night.

I'm with you when the times are good,
To share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall...
I'll still be there for you.

And when that day arrives
That we no longer are apart,
I'll smile and hold you close to me...
Forever in my heart.

Obituary

Phyllis Lee Tomlin, age 86, of Pineville, Kentucky, passed away peacefully on July 2, 2026. She was born on October 3, 1939, to the late Beulah and B.F. Black.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her sister, Janice Vicars; her niece, Christina Carnes; and her beloved husband, Earl Tomlin, with whom she shared many wonderful years.

She leaves behind a loving family who will cherish her memory forever, including her children, Theresa Tomlin and Sean Tomlin; her grandchildren, Eric Tomlin, Ashley (Joey) Hunter, Tiffany Tomlin, Courtney Logan, Kane Tomlin, Michael Logan, and Olivia Tomlin; and her great-grandchildren, Ethan Billups, Evan Hissett, Jordan Hissett, Cambria Spencer, Aleeah Tomlin, Eric Tomlin Jr., Oaklan Hissett, and Sullivan Hissett.

She is also survived by her siblings, Patricia Yoanidis, Juanita (Don) Woodburn, Gail Carnes, and Jim (Becky) Black, as well as many nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.

Phyllis found her greatest joy in spending time with her family. She had a contagious smile and loved to laugh. In her younger years, she enjoyed dancing, and throughout her life she found happiness in coloring, playing cards, working crossword puzzles, and watching Hallmark movies. Her favorite colors were pink and green, and she had a special love for her cherished stuffed animals, affectionately known as her "babies." She also enjoyed her long career in accounting.

Those who knew Phyllis will remember her as one of the sweetest and kindest people they have ever met. She had a generous heart and would do anything for someone in need. Her love, warmth, and gentle spirit touched the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know her.

Though she will be deeply missed, her love and the precious memories she created with her family will remain in their hearts forever.
