

In Loving Memory

Thomas G. Kram

November 27, 1934 ~ July 8, 2025

Thomas G. Kram was born November 27, 1934, in Langdon, ND to Samuel and Beatrice (Marcotte) Kram. He grew up in Dresden, ND where he attended grade school. After graduating from St. Alphonsus High School in Langdon, he attended North Dakota State University. Tom then returned to Langdon, where he farmed with his dad before taking over the farm. He was also a co-owner of the Premix Cement Plant south of Langdon. Things he enjoyed were flying after obtaining his private license, playing blackjack and trips to the casino in Devils Lake, and his coin collection.

He is survived by his sister, Geraldine Schneider, Fargo, ND, nieces and nephews: Mike Kram, Colleen Rinas, Tom Kram, Pat Kram, Mary Feil; Cal Brent Crockett, Kent Crockett, Mary Barnes, Kathy Knieriemen, Greg Crockett; Susan Woodley and Carolyn Long, and several great nieces and nephews.

Preceding Tom in death were his parents, Samuel and Beatrice, brother, Ronald Kram, sister, Rita Crockett, and two infant brothers.

Thomas G. Kram, 90, of Langdon, North Dakota, passed away on Tuesday, July 8, 2025, at Maple Manor Care Center in Langdon.
