

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever.

Amen

Myrna Charbonneau

October 20, 1930 - March 5, 2025

Myrna Youngman Charbonneau, 94, passed away on March 5th, 2025 at the Faith Lutheran Home in Wolf Point, Montana. She was born in Poplar, Montana on October 20th, 1930, to Louis and Mary (Eagleman) Youngman. She was baptized in the Catholic Church on December 25th, 1930 at just two months old, at the St. Ann's Chapel. She proudly held and practiced her faith throughout her life.

She attended school in Portland Oregon, graduating from Immaculate Academy (Portland, OR) in 1949, after which she attended NAES/Fort Peck Community College in Poplar. Throughout her years of work, she held various jobs.

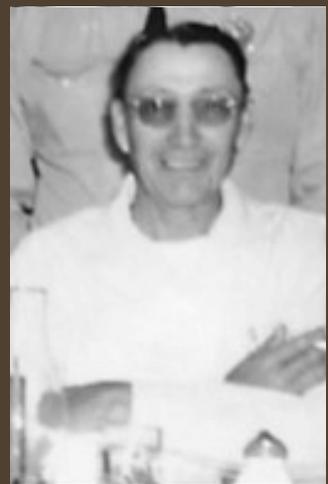

While in Reno, Nevada she worked at the United States Post Office before returning to Poplar. After returning home, she worked for the Fort Peck Tribal Head Start program as Assistant Director and Health Coordinator, Director of the Tribal Elders program, as well as the Administrative Secretary for West Electronics. She also worked at the Tribal Voc Rehab program as Transition Coordinator. Myrna volunteered many years as a board member for West Electronics, Fort Peck Sioux Council as Secretary, Fort Peck Tribal Museum and served on the Montana State Board of Tribal Elders.

She also served as an election judge for numerous tribal elections throughout the years. Myrna was also a certified home health aide and worked at Poplar Community Hospital, where she also volunteered for the ambulance service with her sister Faye. After retiring from her many years of working, she enjoyed her time spent at her home in Poplar where she was able to spend time with her close family including her many grandchildren and great grandchildren, who were her pride and joy. She loved having visitors, she was an avid reader and loved her daily crossword puzzles.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mary and Louis, her siblings; Velma Keever, Janet Spencer, Lewis Youngman, Warren Youngman, Arlene "Faye" Peterson, and Agnes Turnbull; a daughter; Gail Charboneau-Dupree; grandchildren, Rosebud Dupree, Dustin Martin, Bronson Charboneau, Mary Charboneau, her cousin, Charles "Chuck" Eagleman, whom she remained close with throughout the years until his passing in 2023, and her dear friend Ruby Clark, as well as numerous relatives. Surviving family members include her sons Craig and Jon Charboneau; her daughters Debra Bruner, Michelle Trottier, Jeanette Charboneau, Marci Charbonneau, Darci Martin, and Marguerite Charboneau, as well as her numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren. Relatives include the Youngman and Eagleman families. We apologize if there were names omitted, it was not intentional.

You are not forgotten,
loved one
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee,
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by we'll miss you more.
Your loving smile,
your gentle face,
No one can fill
your vacant place.
