Proverbs 31 : 25– 31

Strength and honor are her clothing;

She shall rejoice in time to come.

She opens her mouth with wisdom,

And on her tongue is the law of kindness.

She watches over the ways of her household,

And does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her blessed;

Her husband also, and he praises her:

“Many daughters have done well,

But you excel them all.”

Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing,

But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.

Give her of the fruit of her hands,

And let her own works praise her in the gates.

Fay was born on October 28, 1937, in Klondike, Texas to L.K. and Clarice (Hooten) Perkins. The family relocated to the Texas Panhandle and Fay would go on to graduate from Olton High School, even though she told her father she wanted to quit.

On March 23, 1957, she married William “Willie” Jones in Childress, Texas. Together they built a legacy of devotion, love, and a family. They were members of Southwest Church of Christ for many years. Fay loved the Lord and her family, but William was her whole world.

Fay was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband, William, who passed on September 18, 2025, and her sisters, Madie Williams and Clara Sims-Proffitt. Those left to cherish her memories are her daughter Pam Adams and husband Randy, son Kenneth Jones and wife Laurey, sister Deborah Payne of Tool, Texas, brothers, Jimmie Perkins of Abilene, L.V. Perkins of Amarillo, and Johnnie Perkins of Lawton, Oklahoma; as well as her grandchildren, Derrick Adams (Amber), Dustin Adams (Amber), D’nissa Hester (Trace), Cameron Jones (Jennifer), and Tyler Jones (Darymar), and 10 great-grandchildren. Fay also leaves very special friends and neighbors, Gary and Daphynne Steinkirchner, and her beloved Yorkie, Cody.
