Dream A While

Close your eyes and Dream A While
Dream. Dream. Dream.

I see a face in my dream,
I see the stars in your eyes.
And the moonlight from the skies
You took my hand and then you smiled. We went to the moon and talked a while.
Your hands were warm and you held me tight, I opened my eyes and you were not in sight.
Dream, Dream, Dream.

I closed my eyes and dreamed a while I reach my arms way up high
All the way to the sky,
And touched the face in my dream.
Now, I can dream, dream, dream.

Obituary

Earl Chester Mallard was born in Boston, Massachusetts on December 28, 1934 and passed away peacefully on October 10, 2022. He was the son of Ella Mallard, of Bermuda and Charles Mallard, of Nebraska. Earl started his military career in the United States Army before transitioning into the United States Air Force, where he spent over 23 years serving and protecting our country. After an honorable career in the military, where he retired as a Staff Sargent, Earl went on to work for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). At the FAA, Earl served as a Special Agent and was the Regional Hazardous Materials Program Manager until his retirement. He received the US Air Force Commendation Medal, and numerous letters of commendation and appreciation from leaders in the FAA. He spent countless hours helping veterans and their families receive VA benefits. Earl will forever be known for living life to the fullest, traveling all over the world, meeting new people, and having a glass of wine with friends and family.

Earl will be remembered as a beloved father, brother, grandfather, uncle, and friend to many. He is predeceased by his first wife Laura, son Glen Walker and brother Charles Mallard. He is survived by his beloved partner, Cilorene Weekes-Cabey, daughter, Antoinette Romes, his sister Cecelia Lewis and her husband, Charles. Earl leaves his grandchildren, Quiana Romes, Nichole Monica Walker and Glen Anthony Walker, Jr. as well as 10 great grandchildren, 1 great-great grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends throughout the United States and in Bermuda. All will miss him dearly.
