

MISS ME-BUT LET ME GO

Author Unknown

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Turn to the God we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me - But let me go!*

Although Steven's promotion was sudden, during his first assignment he lived life to the fullest and always believed better was in store for him. Steven graduated from Ocean Township High School where he played basketball & football. After high school, he attended Trenton State College where he was a member of the gospel choir and where he pledged Lambda Theta Phi. After college, Steven enjoyed employment where he was able to assist and interact with many. He enjoyed working for First Option as a Sales Manager, Sears as a customer service representative, and most recently Georgies Tavern as a security officer/bartender. Steven enjoyed good music, dancing, martial arts, dungeons and dragons, comics, and was a true Harry Potter fan. As a youth and young adult, Steven was an active member of the True Vine Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Tom Miles and Rev. Michael Grady where he was a member of the Young People's choir and later the Young Adult's choirs.

With his new assignment comes a huge sign-on bonus (eternal life) and a reunion with family and friends he has not seen in a long time. Steven was predeceased by; paternal grandparents-Lloyd and Ada Stephens, maternal grandparents-James and Frances Roberson; uncles-James T. Roberson, Jerry W. Stephens, Leroy Stephens, George Stephens, and Lloyd Stephens; aunts-Connie Lee, Henrietta Robinson, Loyce Stephens, Otheia Williams and a cousin-Joel Smith.
