OBITUARY

Rotisha Lynette Roebuck was born on March 10, 1986 in Columbus, Ohio along with her twin brother Roshawn Leon Roebuck. They were born to the parents of Sheila Renee Steward and Roosevelt Tucker.

Rotisha graduated from Northland High School. She worked several different jobs, such as Walmart, Kroger and the AMT Group with MRDD patients. However, her true passion was her artwork. Tisha shared her artistic view through her drawing's tattoos, and music. Tisha had a free spirit and created tight bonds and meaningful relationships with the people she encountered. She left her mark on the world simply by just being caring and loving. She was gentle with a soft, spoken voice and the heart of a lion. Rotisha was someone we all could respect and learn from; she always stuck by her loved ones, and was always herself.

Rotisha is preceded in death by her father, Roosevelt Tucker; uncle Christopher Steward grandparents; Helen Clayborn and John Stewart, sister Adrienne Manns, nephew Derek Boon (nephew), and aunt Demita Meek.

Rotisha leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Sheila Roebuck, brothers; Frederick Roebuck, Dana Roebuck, James Roebuck, and twin Roshawn Roebuck. Sisters John Stewart, Amy White, and Jamie Manns. Aunts; Viola Davis, Brenda Murray, Loretta Dean, Jamie Means and Uncle John Stewart. Her significant other, Merwyn "Duchess" Smith along with a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and loved ones.
