

With Love & Gratitude

The family of Naylani Nicole Jones would like to sincerely thank everyone who has surrounded us with love during this unimaginable time.

Thank you for every call, text, visit, prayer, meal, flower, donation, hug and quiet moment of support. Most importantly, thank you for loving Naylani and helping us honor the six beautiful months she shared with us.

Your kindness has carried us through moments when we did not know how we would continue putting one foot in front of the other.

As we say goodbye to our little butterfly, we ask that you continue to keep Naylani's memory alive by speaking her name, remembering her life and carrying the love she brought into this world with you.

With love,
The Family of Naylani Nicole Jones

Six Butterflies

Six butterflies represent the six precious months Naylani shared with us.

One for every month she fought, grew, loved and was loved.

Although six months could never have been enough, every month, every day and every moment of Naylani's life mattered.

Six beautiful months...
A lifetime of love....

Naylani Nicole Jones

Six beautifl months.. A lifetime of love..

Naylani Nicole Jones was born on March 10, 2026, in Kansas City, Missouri, to her loving parents, Kylee Fritz and DeMaurion Jones.

Naylani made her entrance into the world much earlier than anyone expected. Born at just 27 weeks after her mother courageously labored for four days, she entered this world tiny, precious, and already showing just how strong she could be.

For the first five months of her life, the NICU became Naylani's first home. While her family longed to have her home in their arms, Naylani spent those months growing, fighting, and becoming strong enough for the life and family waiting for her outside of the hospital.

And her family waited patiently for her.

When Naylani was finally able to leave the NICU, it felt as though a new chapter of her life was just beginning. There were so many arms waiting to hold her, little cousins waiting to play with her, family members waiting to spoil her, and countless memories still waiting to be made.

At only six months old, Naylani had not yet had the opportunity to show everyone all the little pieces of the person she was becoming. Her family was still waiting to discover her personality, celebrate her milestones, hear more of her laughter, and learn all of the things their little girl would grow to love.

That is part of what makes saying goodbye to Naylani so difficult. Her family grieves not only the beautiful baby they loved, but also all of the moments they were still waiting to experience with her.

....Continued

Naylani's life was brief, but it was never without meaning.

She was wanted. She was celebrated. She was fought for. She was waited for. And above everything else, she was deeply loved.

Naylani leaves to cherish her precious memory her parents, Kylee Fritz and DeMaurion Jones; her grandparents, Chanita Jones and Timothy McEnroe; Tara Fritz and Eric Fritz; her great grandparents, Linda Vieyra and Kathy Long; Carolyn Jones and Peggy McEnroe; her great great grandmother Kay Boswell; her Aunties TyTanisha Jones, Aliyah Fritz and Keira Fritz; her Uncles Donte Jones, Eriq Jones, Vander Bower, Keyln Wilson, Ryder Wilson and Tanner Vieyra; her God mom Katelyn Gavrilys and God brother Kavon Bailey, along with her extended family and all those whose hearts were touched by her life.

Naylani was preceded in death by Terry Long, Louis Vieyra, Anna Harris, Pablo Johnson, Terry Boswell, Ernie Fritz, Martha Landrith and James Leroy McEnroe Sr.

Naylani Nicole Jones departed this life on September 11, 2026, at just six months old.

Six months could never have been enough.

But for six beautiful months, Naylani was here.

And for a lifetime, Naylani will be loved.

Baby Heaven

God took me in His loving arms and kissed my little cheek.
"Now close your eyes, sweet child,
and try hard not to peek.
We're off to Baby Heaven.
A paradise above,
where perfect baby angels
wait in joy for those they love."
I know how much you miss me.
I'm reminded with each tear.
I only wish that you could see
the beauty that is here.
The time will come, dear family,
when I'll be yours again,
but I'm here in Baby Heaven
watching over you 'til then.
