by Luvmemissme*

Family ties are precious things woven through the years, of memories, togetherness,
of laughter, love and tears.

Family ties are treasured things
forged in childhood days, by love of parents, deep and true, by tradition, by family ways.

Family ties are treasured things
and although we may roam, the tender bond with those we love still pulls our hearts towards home.

They made a great team. They saved their money and invested in rental properties early on. She worked for the telephone company in Valley Mills. She spent several years at Baylor as assistant cashier and secretary to the Dean of Men. She later worked at Hillcrest in the accounting department and secretary to the Chaplain.

Ruby's hobbies included camping, playing cards and dominos, cooking and enjoying great food, and all the family gatherings! She LOVED her family immensely. Her most treasured thing was spending time with her grandchildren. She also enjoyed bragging about them to EVERYONE! She also cherished her dog, Cha Cha.

Ruby was preceded in death by her parents, Cone and Pearl Dansby; husband, J.C. Godby; sisters, Dorothy Renfro and JoNell Meyer; brother, C.R. Dansby; and 3 of her grandchildren, Jimmy Craig Godby, Ricky Bradshaw, and Missy Kimble.
