

To My Wife

I thought of you today, I thought about you yesterday. Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms, I have you in my heart.

Grandmother

"Being loved by Grandma meant experiencing a love that was unconditional, comforting and everlasting. Her presence filled our hearts with joy and her wisdom guided us through life's challenges. Grandma's love was a gift that will forever be cherished and remembered. Rest in peace, dearest Grandma, knowing that you love will continue to love on in our heart."

Pallbearers

Tony Morris	Kenneth Stone
David Morris	Raymond Stone
Rashene Morris	Rashid Lunsford
Bobby Davis	John Bradford Jr.

Honorary Pallbearers

Jaylen Stone	Thomas Tally
Rodney Stone Jr.	Jeff Hayes
Pete Harper	Tyrone Armstrong
Charles Simmons	Pedro Morris

Flower Bearers

Dajah Rolley	Dionna Morris
Zaire Lloyd	Lexington Stone
Christin Rolley	Arrington Stone
Brooklyn Stone	Kennedi Morris

Honorary Flower Bearers

Macie Stone	Roxanne Ruff
Tiffany Morris	Wendy Morris
Janice Morris	Nakia Mason
Praize Cavaness	Cindy Ruff

Acknowledgement

The family of Judy Vanessa Stone wishes to acknowledge with grateful appreciation, the many kind words, flowers, cards, telephone calls, social media posts, and other expressions of love extended to them during their hour of bereavement. A special thanks to Carolyn Davis, Mozella Lawrence and Quincy Jones for their support provided to the family, we appreciate everyone.

Known for Excellence. Trusted for Value.

A Service of Memory Celebrating the Life of

Judy Vanessa Stone

November 14, 1953 - November 22, 2024

Saturday December 7, 2024

Visitation: 11:00 am - Masonic Service: 12:00 pm -
Funeral Service: 12:30 pm

New Prospect Baptist Church
1580 Summit Road | Cincinnati, Ohio 45237
Rev Damon Lynch III, Officiating

Obituary

Judy Vanessa Stone was born on November 14, 1953, to Maude and Charles Morris in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Judy married Robert Stone Jr., and the two shared a loving, enduring marriage of 42 years until her passing. Their union was one built on love, commitment, and mutual respect, and together they raised a beautiful family.

Judy's educational journey took her through both Cincinnati Public Schools and Catholic Schools, shaping her into the kind-hearted and driven woman she became. She dedicated her life to caring for others, whether through her work at home or in professional settings.

Judy operated a daycare center from her home, where she lovingly cared for children, and she also worked at Wesley Daycare Center and The Shriners Burns Hospital. Her compassion extended to adults as well; she worked as an Activity Coordinator at St. Margaret Hall Nursing Center, bringing joy and comfort to the elderly. Judy was also a devoted foster parent, providing love and care to children in need.

Outside of her professional life, Judy had many passions. She was an avid lover of music, dance, cooking, shopping, and travel. These were the things that brought her joy and allowed her to create lasting memories with those she loved.

Judy gave her life to Christ at an early age and became a member of New Prospect Baptist Church in 1997, where she grew spiritually and was an active part of the church community. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Stars, St. John Chapter 25, where she found camaraderie and fellowship.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and her siblings: Charles Jr., JoAnn Morris, Anna Crawford, Larry Morris, Jerome Morris, Carolyn Phillips and Phillip Morris.

She passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, and dedication to her family and community.

Judy leaves behind a cherished family who will carry her memory forward with love and gratitude. She is survived by: her beloved husband, Robert Stone Jr., and their nine children: Dion, Brandy, Dominiki, Ebony, Robert III (Shemeka), Rodney, BeLogic, Emily, and Carolynn. She is also survived by one brother, LaDon Morris; 12 grandchildren: Dajah, Zaire, Brooklyn, Christin, Raegan, Dionna, Jaylen, Lexington, Arrington, Kennedy, Rodney Jr., and Macie; one great-grandson, Xoe Yett; as well as sisters-in law Antonia Brooks(Huntsville, AL), Johnie Mae Stone, and Joyce Simmons along with a host of nieces, nephews. Her legacy of love and service to others will never be forgotten.

Judy was the embodiment of this wisdom, always caring for others, and her memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Rest in peace, Judy. You will be dearly missed and forever cherished.

Proverbs 31:26 says, "She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness."

Order of Service

Organ Prelude Church
Prayer Pastor Ann Matthews
Scripture Pastor Ann Matthews
Selection LaWanda McCoy
Acknowledgements Shameka Stone
Tribute Grand Daughters
Remarks 2 minutes please
Obituary Read silently
Selection Mashonda Nelson
Eulogy Rev Damon Lynch III
Benediction Rev Damon Lynch III
Recessional

Windham Hall

817 Windham Avenue - Cincinnati, OH 45229

Thanks to New Prospect Baptist Church and Walker Funeral Services.

John 16:33 "I have told you these things, so that in ,e you ,ay have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."