

OBITUARY

Beverly Jean Blankenship, a beloved figure known for her unwavering dedication to her faith and family, passed away peacefully on May 23, 2025, in North Richland Hills, Texas. Born on December 23, 1941, in Vernon, Texas, Beverly was a guiding light to all who knew her, epitomizing love and service throughout her life.

She served as a church secretary, a role through which she offered her time and talents tirelessly. Her devotion to her faith was matched only by her profound commitment to family. Beverly actively engaged in missionary work, touching the lives of many and exemplifying the spirit of giving.

Beverly is preceded in death by her devoted husband, Jimmy Albert Blankenship, her parents, Adam and Faye Anderson; sister, Sharon; and daughter, Marsha Brown.

She is survived by her son, John Loggins and his wife Wendy; son-in-law, Scott Brown; grandson, Jeremy Brown and his wife Paige; stepchildren; many great-grandchildren; as well as a host of other relatives and friends who share many fond memories of her kindness and grace.

Beverly Jean Blankenship's lasting impact on her community and family will not be forgotten, and her spirit will live on in the hearts of all she has touched.

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
