REMEMBERING

Ollie Mae

Madeline (Ollie Mae) James Francisco departed this earthly life on Wednesday morning, February 19, 2025, at the Riviere de Soleil Nursing Home Facility in Mansura, Louisiana.

Ollie Mae was born on May 11, 1940, to the late Andy James, Sr. and the late Ollie James in Hamburg, Louisiana.

She was known to all as "Ollie Mae" and was baptized at an early age at Shilo Baptist Church in Hamburg, Louisiana, by the late Pastor J. Bannister. Although her schooling was limited, she was employed with Allen Canning Company in Belleau, Louisiana, for many years.

Ollie Mae was united in Holy Matrimony to Joseph Francisco. To this union, one son was born, Herman Francisco. She loved to cook and feed the neighborhood. Her favorite foods were fried chicken, pork roast, spaghetti, rice dressing, and Swedish meatballs. She enjoyed being around family and friends.

Ollie Mae was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Joseph Francisco; four siblings: Elouise Augustine, Wellor Murray, Alton (Jessie) James, and Andy James, Jr.; and one grandson, Stephen Francisco.

She leaves to cherish her memories One son, Herman Francisco; two sisters, Geraldine Louis and Patricia Jacobs (Emeric), all of Mansura, La; two grandchildren, Jaecques Walters of Mansura, La, and Demechris Francisco (DeLena); Lebanon, KY, four great-grandchildren, one godchild, Laderica Augustine; two sisters-in-law, Mildred Francisco and Mary Nell Francisco; two brothers-in-law, Samuel Francisco and David Francisco; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
