SERVICES AT 2:00 P.M. STEVENS FUNERAL HOME CHAPEL
COLEMAN, TEXAS

*I just hope you're happy now.
Really, truly happy.
I hope Heaven is everything
you imagined it would be.
I hope it's full of the people
you've missed.
I hope you've been wrapped in every hug you've longed for.
I hope you're surrounded by familiar faces, warm smiles,
and unconditional love.
I hope you're laughing again.
I hope you're dancing again.
I hope your heart feels light
and your spirit feels free.
And maybe that's what keeps me going on the hard days-believing that while I'm still here missing you...*

*You're already home.

John Coy Dale Puckett, beloved son, brother, grandson, and friend, passed away on July 13, 2026, in Amarillo, Texas. He was born on October 12, 2004, in Sweetwater, Texas, and during his 21 years touched the lives of all who knew him.

John attended school in Santa Anna and Roby, where he formed lasting friendships and created cherished memories. Those who were fortunate enough to know John remember him for his heart of gold. He brought laughter to so many lives with his quick wit and joyous spirit, always ensuring that those around him felt the warmth of his love and kindness. His carefree nature allowed him to navigate life with an openness that drew people near and put them at ease, making every gathering brighter simply by being present.

John's passions ranged from the peaceful solitude of fishing by the water's edge to the excitement and camaraderie of playing video games with friends. An avid reader, he loved discovering new worlds through the pages of a good book and was always eager to share those stories with others. He also enjoyed cooking and dreamed of one day owning his own food truck. Through these interests, John built lasting friendships, strengthened family bonds, and created countless cherished memories that will continue to be treasured by all who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his devoted mother, Sheila Bailey; his loving sister, Sudie Puckett; and his grandmother, Rachel Bailey. John is also remembered and dearly missed by numerous aunts, uncles and cousins, whose relationships with him brought mutual affection and joy.

John was preceded in death by his father, Timmie Dale Puckett, his grandmother, Beverly Boiles, and his grandfather, Archie Bailey. Their memories live on in the hearts of those who loved John and knew the depth of his compassion and the brightness of his spirit.

John Coy Dale Puckett's legacy is one of love, laughter, and kindness. Though his time on earth was far too short, he made a profound impact on everyone he met. He will be deeply missed, yet fondly remembered by all whose lives he touched.

We invite you to share fond memories and words of comfort and condolence with the Puckett family by signing the guestbook on John's tribute page at www.stevensfuneralhome.com. Stevens Funeral Home is honored to serve the Puckett family.
