Pallbearers

Daley Gunter
David Gunter Jr.
Nathan Gunter Jr
Aaron Gunter II
Jamaal Landrum
Ronnie Hicks Jr.
Michael Hicks Jr.
Ronnie Hicks Jr.
Nicholas Patton
Timothy Patton

Honorary Palllbearers

David Gunter
Marvin Gunter
Nathan Gunter
Aaron L Gunter Jr.
Avery Sherrod
Aubrey Sherrod
David Wilson
Rodney Jennings Jr.

Flower Bearers

Rosie M. Stewart
Idella M. Wilson
Rebecca L. Gunter
DeNiece Daniels
Louise Gunter
Betty Gunter
Pamela Gunter
Roxie Halstead
Samantha Welters Gunter
Kim Frazier
Rosalind Driver
Valarie Madondo

Honorary Flower Bearers

Tanisha N. Mitchell
Mikayla Hicks
Maria Jennings
Rochelle Gunter
Reachelle Gunter
Jalasia Landrum
Myra Landrum
Maria Jennings
Starnisha Griffin
Jada Griffin
Genesis Godbolt

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Wherever you did to console our hearts, we than you so much, whatever the part.

The Family of
Abbie Mae (Frazier) Gunter
would also like to thank;
Dellrose United Methodist Church Staff and Family,
Dr. Vijay Khurana, Dr. Aly and Wife Deann Gadalla
and the Staff of Clear Path Hospice for the loving and exceptional care,
you gave to our Mama Abbie Mae Gunter.
Job well done!

Jackson MORTUARY

Designed by: Today's Images

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Mrs. Abbie Mae Gunter

April 28, 1929 – September 25, 2026

Proverbs 31:10

A wife of noble character who can find?
She is worth far more than rubies.

On the afternoon of September 25, 2026 in her home, Abbie received her crown of glory.

Abbie Mae Gunter was born April, 28, 1923 in Langston, Oklahoma. Abbie was the 13th child born to (nine brothers and four sisters) the late Aaron Frazier and Delphia (Brooks) Frazier. Abbie attended Favor Middle School, where she received her early education and she graduated from Langston High School before it became the HBCU that it is known for to date. Abbie always shared her memories of attending school and her love for home economics and the help of her mother where she learned to become the excellent cook we ALL had the pleasure of enjoying. She had a master skill of pressing hair. Abbie would press your hair so straight, it looked and felt like silk when it was done. Abbie shared her stories of the dances she attended while in school, the sock hops, homecoming dances and many more.

Abbie later moved to Wichita, Kansas where she met and married Aaron L. Gunter Sr and to this union, 11 children were born. Married for 60 years, they built a home based off love and FAMILY! Abbie, was the CEO of the family. She ran that house!

Abbie was baptized at an early age. She attended Salters AME Chapel Church in Langston, Oklahoma. In her later years, Abbie attended and was baptized at Dellrose United Methodist church for 30 plus years. Abbie was very active in worship and she served on the New Members Orientation Team alongside her daughter DeNiece. Abbie was known for her delicious cakes, chocolate and 7Up cake. Abbie also was faithful in supporting the choir everywhere they traveled. She loved her church and church family.

Abbie was a steady light through changing times through moments of joy and challenge, through eras that reshaped the world, and through the quiet, everyday acts that shaped our lives sometimes even without a thank you! She taught her family what strength looks like not loud or boastful, but patient, enduring, and deeply rooted. She showed her family that love is not just something we say, but something we do again and again!

The blessed treat that you would receive if she knew your birthday, she would literally call you and sing HAPPY BIRTHDAY to you. Whether you answered the phone or not. And would sing the full song too! That's how much she loved you.

God blessed Abbie with 97, years of life it was FULL. Full with lessons, with laughter, with SACRIFICES made without recognition, and kindness given without expectation. Abbie had been our guide, a protector, a teacher, and above all, a source of unconditional love.

"I LOVE YOU MORE"

Celebration of Life

Dellrose United Methodist Church
Pastor Dr. Kevass J. Harding, Officiant
Saturday, October 17, 2026 at 1:00 p.m.

PROCESSIONAL

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE
Pastor Dr. Pastor Kevass J. Harding

SONG
"I Just Wanna Praise You"
DUMC Voices of Joy

COMFORT FROM SCRIPTURES
Psalm 23
Elder John Thompson, Sr.
Proverbs 31: 10-31
Pastor Christyn Gunter

PRAYER
Pastor Valerie Turner

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS/OBITUARY
Dalisa Portley

LIFE REFLECTIONS
PLEASE LIMIT 2 MINUTES

PRECIOUS MEMORIES VIDEO PRESENTATION

SPECIAL POEM
"My Wonderful Grandmother"
Kimberly Frazier

MUSIC SELECTION
"Safe in His Arms"
Kimberly Paige

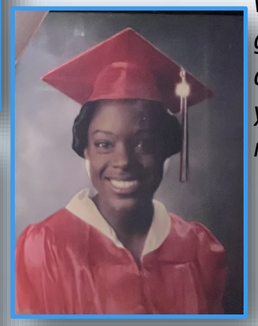

WORDS OF COMFORT
Pastor Dr. Pastor Kevass J. Harding

RECESSIONAL

*REPASS WILL BE HELD IN THE DELLROSE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH FELLOWSHIP HALL.

My PRECIOUS children, if I could sit beside you for a while, I'd hold your hands within my own, and greet you with a smile. I know your hearts are aching, and there's much you wish to say. Take every sorrow to the Lord; He hears you when you pray. I raised you knowing Jesus, taught you how to trust His Word. Now keep the faith I planted, let your lives reflect the Lord. Remember how we bowed our heads, before we faced the day? The God who carried me through life, will guide you on your way. Stay close to one another, be gentle, kind, and true. Give grace, forgive, and love the way I always prayed you'd do. You need not hide your tears, my loves; let grief have room to breathe. Then lean upon His promises and all you still believe. My earthly steps have ended, but the path I taught remains. Keep walking hand in hand with God Throughsunshine and through rain. Until the day we meet again, Hold these words within your heart: Walk with God, and love each other Let the faith I taught you be your start.

Keep Walking with God,
Love Always, Mama

Because of who she was, we know the value of perseverance. We now understand the importance of family. We believe in showing up for one another, even when it's hard. Her life has been a masterclass in grace.

And yet, what made Abbie (Mama) truly extraordinary is not just the years SHE lived, but the way she lived them—with dignity, warmth, humor, and a heart that never stopped giving.

TODAY we honor and celebrate every chapter of HER life! We honored the young woman she once was, the wife, the mother, the grandmother, great grandmother, great-great grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend SHE became, and the remarkable person she became to all of us. The hands that disciplined, fed, taught, healed, and held us tight! The arms that rocked us, covered us, wrapped us tight! Abbie Mae Gunter (Frazier) You are our history, our foundation, and our inspiration.

Abbie is preceded in death by her parents, Aaron Frazier, and Delphia (Brooks) Frazier; Husband Aaron L. Gunter Sr; Her daughters: Mary L. Frazier, Debbie M. Gunter, her Oldest Grandson; Lionel (Tiger) Stewart Jr.; Her Granddaughter Laquetta R. Gunter, 9 brothers and 4 sisters.

Abbie is survived by her children: Daughters: Rosie M. Stewart, Idella M. Wilson, Rebecca E. Gunter, DeNiece Daniels and Louise Gunter; Sons: Aaron L. Gunter Jr. (wife Pat), Nathan L. Gunter Sr. (wife Betty), David Gunter (wife Pamela) and Marvin Gunter (wife Samantha), HOST of Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, Great Great Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, Great Nieces and Nephews, cousins, friends and a community that loved and adored her.

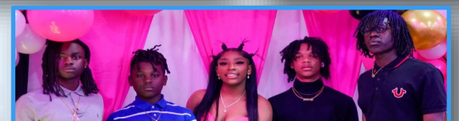

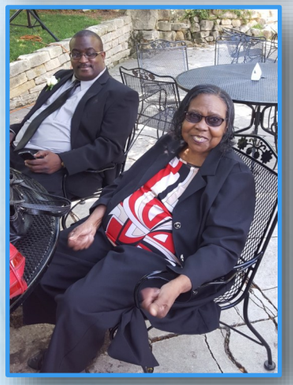

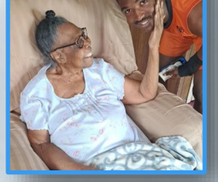

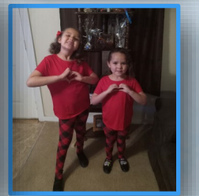

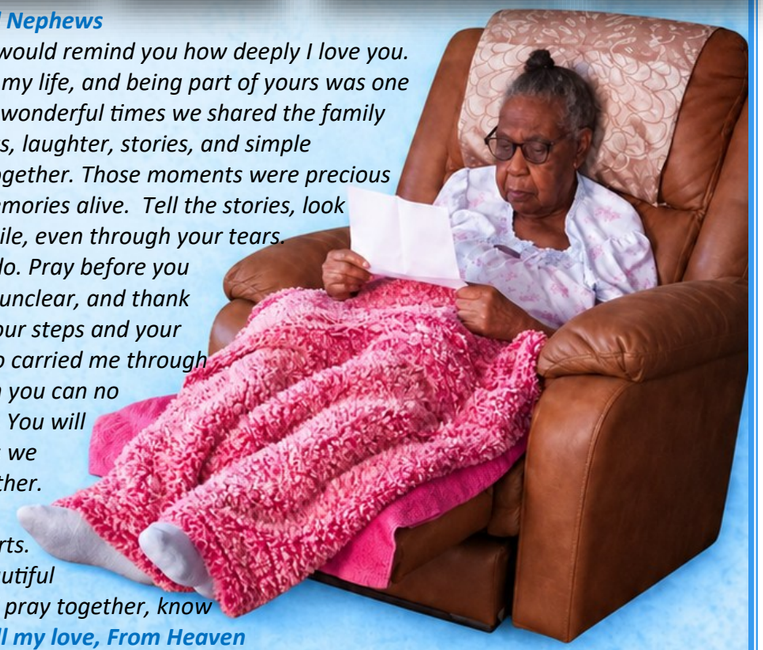

To My Precious Grandchildren, Nieces, and Nephews

If I could gather you close one more time, I would remind you how deeply I love you. Each of you brought something special into my life, and being part of yours was one of my greatest blessings. Remember all the wonderful times we shared the family gatherings, meals around the table, holidays, laughter, stories, and simple moments when we were just happy to be together. Those moments were precious because we had each other. Keep those memories alive. Tell the stories, look through the pictures, and let yourselves smile, even through your tears.

Above all, keep God first in everything you do. Pray before you make decisions, trust Him when the way is unclear, and thank Him in every season. Let your faith guide your steps and your kindness reflect His love. The same God who carried me through my life will carry you through yours. Though you can no longer see me, the love I gave you remains. You will find it in the lessons I taught, the memories we made, and the love you share with one another.

When you miss me, hold those things close. I am with you always, tucked into your hearts. Live fully, love deeply, and keep making beautiful family memories. As you gather, laugh, and pray together, know that nothing could honor me more. With all my love, From Heaven