

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Sharon Kay Heinaman

Sharon Kay Heinaman, 76, of Sedalia, MO, passed away peacefully at her home on Thursday, June 26, 2025. She was born on February 15, 1949, in Kansas City, MO, the daughter of Otis and Cordelia (Rice) Freedle, who preceded her in death.

On August 18, 1984, in Sedalia, she was united in marriage to Ronald H. Heinaman, who preceded her in death on January 7, 2018.

A proud graduate of North East High School in Kansas City, Class of 1967, Sharon began her career as a bank teller. She later worked at Mighty Melt in Sedalia, then served as Human Resources Manager at Cook Book Publishers. She concluded her career with Guardsman Security, retiring in 2022.

Sharon was a creative soul who enjoyed crafting floral arrangements, often selling her creations at local craft shows. She was also an avid collector of Elvis Presley memorabilia, Precious Moments figurines, Native American art, NASCAR items, and John Wayne keepsakes. One of her greatest joys was gathering with her family at Truman Dam for 4th of July celebrations, especially watching the fireworks.

Survivors include four daughters: Christina Lor (Bee) of Florence, Lisa Thomas (Garry) of Kingsville, Lori Thomas (David) of Lincoln, and Lindi Brownfield of Sedalia; 14 grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Wayne Freedle.
