OBITUARY

“If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord.
So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.”
Romans 14:8

The late Nana Asiedu Sarkwa, whose mortal remains lie before us today was born in Accra on the 31st of January in 1979 to the late Henry and Naomi Sarkwa of blessed memory.

He was baptized into the Nazareth Methodist Church at Mamprobi in Accra Ghana where he served faithfully until relocation.

He had his primary and elementary education at Ministry of Health School in Accra Ghana. After completion, he proceeded to St Augustine’s College in Cape Coast Central Region where he achieved outstanding results. By virtue of his performance, he gained admission into the prestigious Institute of Professional Studies and pursued Financial Management. Nana Asiedu Sarkwa was an exemplary, devoted and goal-oriented student in his hay days and that won him many laurels. He worked with Tradex Resources Foundation till he relocated to the United States.

He was married to Elizabeth Odoi and blessed with 2 wonderful children, Abigail and Henry Sarkwa.

Nana Asiedu was a loving, calm and kind gentleman who was a lover of all. He was respectful, affable and generally a good company. He had an unwavering faith in God. Growing up His favorite song to murmur was: "Edwuma edwuma Nyame edwuma y3 d3 Mi Nyame ee me ne wo b3 tena ama m'ay3 w'edwuma no."

Translation: The work of the good Lord is enjoyable. My Savior, I'll stand with you always to do your work."

On the 30th of November in 2025, Nana Asiedu passed away after a short illness. We miss him here but heaven has gained an angel. We're encouraged that He's resting in the bosom of our Lord Jesus.

Rest well Nana Asiedu in the arms of the Lord almighty. Till we meet again.
