

A Mother & Daughters Love

Mom

I will miss you dearly. I am thankful God granted my life to you. Your tenderness and loving ways will still get me through my lonely days. Your voice and laughter will forever be in my mind. You were the mother who helped me find my walking shoes and taught me lessons that I will continue to use. Know that every time I think of you, I will remember your smile, my smile and our smiles together and I know soon I will see you after a while with us bearing the same smiles, while you were here with me. I love you mom! Forever your daughter, Kiana.

Kiana

Because of you, I learned becoming a mom to be the greatest gift God could give me. You were my guide to so many things in life. As a young lady you grew into a passionate and loving person taking nothing for granted. Beautiful, I want you to continue to pursue your dreams and travel the world and live your life abundantly and expeditiously. Daughter, I believe in angels, and I will see my beautiful, sweet angel in the afterlife sharing and laughing at all the memories we shared. Ki-Ki, I love you and remember nothing can stop you. Love Mom!

Family in some of my words Boy / Girl Bye

Acknowledgement

My family and I wish to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, cards, concern and kindness shown during this time of bereavement. May God continue to bless and keep you.

Pall Bearers

Reginald Phoenix, Jr.
Terrell Phoenix, Sr.
Antonio Scott
Raymond Phoenix, III
Deron Phoenix, Sr.
DeAndre Kessler

Flower Bearers

Nieces

Obituary Written by:

Marquitta A. Phoenix, Sister

Walker Funeral Home

2625 Gilbert Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45206
513-251-6200

Celebration of Life for Regina Elaine Phoenix "Gina"

Sunrise: August 18, 1963

Sunset: November 14, 2024

Saturday, November 30, 2024

Visitation: 12:00 pm / Funeral Service: 1:00 pm

Inspirational Bible Church
1116 Lincoln Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45206
Bishop Victor S. Couzens, Sr., Officiating

Obituary

I was born to Evelyn Phoenix August 18, 1963, and was the eighth child of ten. I was blessed to have two fathers Raymond Phoenix, Sr. and Don Williams.

My education was received in the Cincinnati Public School System. I was a 1981 graduate of Aiken High School. After high school I received my associate degree in Business Administration at Southwestern College of Business and furthered my career in administrative work at the Winton Hills Clinic for many years.

After my career in the business field, I used my expertise to start my own business. I opened Ms. Gina's Kiddie Castle Daycare Service to several parents and children over the years.

I had many passions, first and foremost serving the God I grew to know and love. I was baptized at Saint Stephens Baptist Church and later joined Inspirational Bible (formerly Baptist) Church under the leadership of Bishop Victor S. Couzens, Sr.

All who knew me best, knew that I took time out of my day, several times a day to get closer to God by praying, talking to God and reading my scriptures and paying my tithes.

Monday night wrestling was another passion. Everyone knew on Mondays I was not trying to answer the phone because it was WWE night. I would say to all who called me, "why are you calling me, call me back, now you know wrestling on" and I didn't care who was offended, they knew what it was.

God gifted me the blessing of my life, my one and only beautiful daughter Kiana, who I loved dearly, and nothing could tear us apart.

I loved my family and there was nothing better than dancing, card games and just getting together with one another. There was not a day when I didn't keep up with my family. I made it known even if I was younger or older to my siblings, that I didn't play about them, they had to check in with me every day. They would always tell me, I have a mother, the same one you have, and my response would be "And, you already know what it is; cray, cray".

I was the caregiver of my mother, which I really enjoyed. Sometimes I had to let her know "with caution, I repeat with caution" I was in charge. First, she would give me that look and we would just laugh and then she would say, "you better go somewhere Gina, ain't nobody playing with you", but it was all love between us.

After a short illness, the Lord had his plan for me, he said daughter your earthly work is done; I need you here with me and I was called home to begin my new journey on Thursday, November 14, 2024.

Beginning my new journey, I leave to cherish my beautiful and talented daughter Kiana, which words cannot express my love for her. My loving and devoted mother Evelyn Phoenix, the blessing of my father Raymond Phoenix, Sr. (Emma); siblings Beverly Fowler (Darion), Raymond Phoenix, Jr., Reginald Phoenix, Sr. (Marquitta), Melinda Scott (Antonio), Karen Kindell, James Phoenix, Clarence Phoenix, Sr., Cynthia Rivers (Artakia Sr.) Anthony Turner, Michelle Turner, Angela Turner, Blanche Thompson and Edith Anderson. Uncle Vernon Thomas (Jimmie Lee) and Aunts Katherine Hill and Florenza Smith, an abundance of nieces, nephews, and cousins; in addition to a host of friends and acquaintances.

This journey has me joining my sister Crystal Phoenix, my God daughter and niece Sha'Liya, Father Don Williams, my maternal and paternal grandparents, aunts and uncles and other family.

Family

Order of Service

- Music Prelude
- Parting View The Family
- Scripture Reading Minister Christopher Phillips
- Prayer Minister Christopher Phillips
- Selection Kevin Hudson
I Won't Complain
- Acknowledgement of Cards & Condolences Dianna Frazier
- Remarks Two Minutes
- Selection Kevin Hudson
His Eye is on the Sparrow
- Obituary Read Silently
- Eulogy Bishop Victor S. Couzens, Sr.
- Benediction Bishop Victor S. Couzens, Sr.
- Recessional.....

Scripture - Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters, He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadows of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff shall they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Repast

Park Eden
2610 Park Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio 45206
ONLY off-street parking is permitted