

*"If I walk in the pathway of duty,
If I work til the close of the day;
I shall see the Great King in his beauty,
When I've gone the last mile of the way."*

His Story

Darrin's life is personal testimony and reflection "Necessary" by Fantasia. I am who I am today because God used all my mistakes. He worked them for my Good, as nobody is ever could. God told Darrin to tell us, that this was "Necessary"

Darrin Clayburn Walker Sr. was born on December 2, 1969 in Charleston, South Carolina to Deloris Green and Ernest Walker. Darrin was raised, mentored and taught the values of being a man by his stepfather Reese Moses from the age of 1 years old. It was though Reese that Darrin learn about family, responsibility, love and how to become a man. On November 24, 2020, Darrin passed at the Newark Beth Israel Medical Center in Newark, NJ.

Darrin Clayburn Walker Sr. attended public school in Newark, NJ. While attending Arts High School in Newark, NJ, it was there he found his passion for music majoring in drum. Playing for many churches, he taught his daughter Kathora how to play the drums. After a few years of going through growing pains in life, he became determined to be a success, he attended Essex County College, and Jersey City College. While Darrin was on a mission to achieve a master's degree, attended Full Sail University, where he did just that, earned a master's degree in videography. Allowing nothing to holding him back in took class at Rutgers University, Jersey City University and member of the Black Students Alliance.

It was on June 17, 1998, where he married the love of his life, Latisha Wallace, in Newark, NJ. To this union, two children were born, Tykeyanna and Darrin Walker. While living in Newark, Darrin developed a skill that he wanted to share, so he reached back an became a mentor for the Stay in Step Academy at Essex County College.

Darrin was dedicated to service. He was a member of the Word of Faith Family Center, in Austell, GA where he serviced faithfully as a member and was a proud member of the video ministry.

While living in Georgia for a short period of time, Darrin advanced his skills and professionalism by working his magic with others in creating short films, videography, photography and music videos.

Darrin worked with celebrities, politicians, cable companies, Newark Public Library and other places.

Darrin was preceded in death by his stepfather, Reese Moses and grandparents: Alice Jones, Arreus Jones, Albert Walker, Aris Walker, and Benny Green. One nephew: Dawoo Walker. Darrin for the last 6 months prior to his death, decreed that God was Awesome and could not describe the many blessings that God was bestowing upon him. He would read the Bible daily and use the scriptures to declare the Glory of God in his life. Darrin would share daily with his Mom, about how God's Glory impacted his life. When others would not connect, or agree, Darrin would say, "Don't worry about them, let them be who they are. You should do what you need to do and don't worry about it".

He leaves behind to cherish his memory; His wife, Latisha Walker and his 5 children: Kathora Knighton of Marietta, GA; Darrin C.
