DON'T GO MOM
(Michael, Earl, Audra, Sonia)

Don't go mom, you are our strength when we are weak.
"Oh my children, just as God has been my strength", God will be yours. Don't go mom, we are not ready to let you go. "Oh my children, I have left so many memories for all to cherish and build on".
I guided you by faith, encouragement, and compassion, and as your mom, helped to establish the foundation of your development; I understood when to allow you to become your own person, independent and self-reliant". Don't go mom, we want more time with you. "Oh my children, you had time and your time with me was well spent". "My children there is another place where I must go now, I will be watching over you. I left you with peaceful memories, being your mom means there will always be a part of me that will remain with you

Mom's Obituary

Barbara Lee White Jackson daughter of the late Vincent White and Margaret Marshall, was born in Baltimore Maryland on March 8, 1939, and departed this life on December 3, 2022, after a lengthy illness.

Barbara was raised in West Baltimore by her late paternal grandmother Sarah Taylor. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools, having to discontinue her studies in the 10th grade, as she sought employment at a nursing home to help support her grandmother. Thirty years later she attended night school, completing her GED Certification.

Barbara accepted Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age. She was baptized and attended many churches. She settled down at Siloam Freewill Baptist Church and later

Payne Memorial, where she became a dedicated missionary. As a missionary, Barbara enjoyed helping in any way she could. The food pantry was her favorite.

Barbara worked many odd jobs as a young woman, her most memorable jobs were, teaching at Goodnews Day Care, and working in the cafeteria at Hilton Elementary. She enjoyed being around children.

In her leisurely time, Barbara enjoyed traveling, taking photos, reading, doing crossword puzzles, watching old westerns, talking with friends and family on the phone, and playing bingo with friends from the Senior Center.

Barbara will be remembered for how she helped and supported those in need. A meal, a few dollars, a hug, and kind words to brighten someone's day.
