Obituary

God, in His infinite wisdom saw fit to call his child, Juanita Wadia Denice Cain, home on May 28th, 2022.

Juanita, also known as NeeNee, was born on March 16th, 1975, to Edna E. Cain and the late Timothy J. McCall, in Philadelphia, PA. Juanita was educated in the Philadelphia school system. She was a straight "A" student through elementary, middle, and high school. At the start of her job career, Juanita worked at the United States Post Office and alongside her Aunt Linda at a Sears Collection Agency. However, because she loved caring for people, Juanita ultimately chose a career as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). Over her fifteen-year tenure Juanita worked at several healthcare facilities including Pennsylvania Hospital and Genesis Healthcare until she became ill.

Juanita was the third of four children born to Edna Cain. Nee Nee was a jokester and loved pulling pranks on her siblings, friends, and even her mother. One of her favorite past times was secretly mimicking family members, especially her aunt Nita and grandmother Poopsi. She constantly threatened to duct tape her mother's mouth to keep her from making wise cracks.

Juanita was died hard Eagles fan. Under no circumstance could you sway her opinion about the birds. She would defend them to the end, whether they won or lost the game. NeeNee enjoyed cooking: she loved making chicken and shrimp alfredo, macaroni and cheese, and baked ham. She loved spending time with her family, watching movies and playing uno with "her girls" nieces Andrea and Aubrie, and granddaughters Yannah and Heaven, who would come to spend the weekends with her. You should know that "her girls" were there with her through thick and thin, caring for her physically, mentally, and emotionally. This is a testament to the love that they and all NeeNee's family members had for her.

Juanita has one son, Javon Omar Cain. When she was diagnosed with cancer, he would take her to her clinic appointments and sit with her during her chemo treatments.

Juanita was one of six siblings. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Omar Cain (Timbesia) and Cornell Austin. Juanita is survived by her son Javon Cain, her partner Earl "Deuce" Jones, her mother Edna Cain, her grandmother Hikmah Gardner, one sister, Amber Cain, two brothers James Cain (Tisha) and Trevor Williams, two granddaughters, Malajah Perkins and Niyannah Jones, three aunts Juanita Cain, Linda Coleman (William), and Wadia Gardner, one uncle, Kasim Gardner. And a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends.

We're going to miss you Nee Nee, and you know that you are loved.

Dedication

MISSING YOU By and From Edna E. Cain

I know you hear us crying
And though we try the tears won't stop
And our hearts feel so weak that we cannot sleep
Until we're so exhausted that we drop
We know you don't want us crying
We know you want us whole
But the loss of you is so great
It shatters our very souls
You were such a great part of us
Entwined in every heart
We just took it for granted
That we would never be apart

The mischief in your eyes we see
We've only to close our eyes
The one thing no one can say about you
Is that you were never shy
The laughter you shared with us all
The hand you were always quick to extend
The unconditional love you gave
To your parents, son, siblings, grands, family, and friends
The challenges you faced in life
Head on, determined regardless of pain
And reminding anyone who doubted you
You could make it because you were a Cain

We love you so very much Juanita
Or NeeNee is your nickname fondly called
You may not have been that great in height
But when it came to heart you stood 10 feet tall
You were a number one Eagles Fan
Whether they won or lost
You insisted it wasn't their fault
But blamed it on their boss

God must have needed a special Angel
To have called on you to come home
But only God is aware of His Perfect and Secret Plan
To us it is and will never be known
We only know we love you
And that you had passed all tests
And although we love you with all our hearts
We know God loves you best
And keeping this in mind NeeNee
He could no longer watch His child in pain
So He reached His hand to take your hand
And He called you by your name

We just want you to know my daughter
My mother, Grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend
We know that this is just a new beginning
That this is where our roads twist and bend
For one day we will be together
For this is not the end
So until that joyous day arrives
So Long, We Love You and we will see you then

In Loving Memory of Our Beloved
