

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Life Reflections

Travis O'Brian Miller, a beloved father, son, brother, and friend, left us on Saturday, July 19th, 2025, at the age of 49. Born on Thursday, October 23rd, 1975, in Columbia, South Carolina, Travis was a vibrant soul whose love for life touched everyone around him.

Travis was the proud father of his cherished daughter, Khalilah I. Cohen, whom he loved dearly. He is also survived by his father, Robert Miller, Sr.; sister, Robbie Huntley, and her husband, Dale; brother, Corey Miller; the mother of his daughter, LaKeysha Cohen and her son, Davon A. Cohen; aunt, Brenda Tisdale; dear friend Sheena Brown; along with many nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends who will continue to carry his spirit in their hearts.

Travis attended Richland Two Schools, including Richland Northeast High School, where he was a proud member of the football team. After earning his high school diploma, Travis went on to build a career as a certified nursing assistant before eventually working as a Laundry Service Specialist at Fort Jackson.

Known for his open mind and positive outlook, Travis enjoyed traveling and connecting with people from all walks of life. He often quipped, "I am great at giving advice, too bad I can't take my own advice," highlighting his sense of humor and humility. As an avid reader, he admired thought-provoking works, such as "The Art of War," and writings by Malcolm X and W.E.B. Du Bois.

A lifelong football enthusiast, Travis's team allegiance shifted over the years from the Giants to the Bills to the Steelers and finally the Raiders, but his passion for the sport never waned. His analytical mind provided a unique perspective when discussing football.

One of his pastimes included playing the guitar, showcasing his talent and creativity. Travis will be remembered for his humor, his gifts, and most importantly, for the enormous love he had for his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Sheldia Houston Miller, and his brothers, Robert Lewis Miller, Jr., and Jermaine Miller.
